BALTIMORE:

PUBLISHED BY FIELDING LUCAS, Jr.,

No. 170 MARKET STREET.

P R E F A C E.

THE twenty-first number of the METROPOLITAN CATHOLIC ALMANAC, and the fourth of the new series, is here presented to the public. The most diligent efforts were made to obtain full and accurate accounts of the state of Catholicity in the different diocesses, and the editor has the gratification to state that returns were received from all, with the exception of three. The acknowledgment of the official report has been inadvertently omitted at pp. 72, 151. An official communication from California, received at the last moment, informs us that Catholicity is prospering in that distant country, that the number of priests has increased, and that the services of the Sisters of Charity have been secured at San Francisco. The Rev. Clergy are respectfully requested to indicate to the publishers of the work any inaccuracy that they may discover in their name or address. The additional matter promised for this number of the Almanac, has been unavoidably omitted.

The editor returns his thanks to the Most Rev. and Rt. Rev. prelates, and to the Rev. Clergy and others who have supplied him with materials for the work, and he respectfully solicits a continuance of their favors.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 15, 1852.

COMMANDMENTS.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS.

1. "I am the Lord thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. Thou shalt not have strange gods before me. Thou shalt not make to thyself a graven thing, nor the likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, nor of those things that are in the waters under the earth. Thou shalt not adore them, nor serve them."
2. "Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain."
3. "Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath day."
4. "Honor thy father and thy mother."
5. "Thou shalt not kill."
6. "Thou shalt not commit adultery."
7. "Thou shalt not steal."
8. "Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor."
9. "Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife."
10. "Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's goods."

COMMANDMENTS OF THE CHURCH.

1. The Catholic church commands her children, on Sundays and holydays of obligation, to be present at the holy sacrifice of mass, to rest from servile works on those days, and to keep them holy.

2. She commands them to abstain from flesh on all days of fasting and abstinence; and on fast days to eat but one meal.

3. She commands them to confess their sins to their pastor at least once a year.

4. She commands them to receive the blessed sacrament at least once a year, and that at Easter, or during the paschal time.

5. To contribute to the support of their pastor.

6. Not to marry within the fourth degree of kindred, nor privately without witnesses; nor to solemnize marriage at certain prohibited times.

N. B. 1. The fourth council of Lateran, Can. 21, ordains that "every one of the faithful, of both sexes, after they come to the years of discretion, shall in private faithfully confess all their sins, at least once a year, to their own pastor; and take care to fulfil, to the best of their power, the penance enjoined them; receiving reverently, at least at Easter, the sacrament of the eucharist, unless perhaps by the counsel of their own pastor, for some reasonable cause, they judge proper to abstain from it for a time: otherwise let them be excluded out of the church whilst living; and when they die, be deprived of Christian burial."

2. The time for the performance of the Easter-duty, may be extended within the United States, from the first Sunday of Lent to Trinity Sunday, both inclusively.

3. The solemnizing of marriage, that is, the celebration of the rite during the mass pro sponso et sponsa, or with a display of festivity, is prohibited from the first Sunday of Advent till after Epiphany, and from the beginning of Lent till after Low Sunday.

FASTING DAYS.

Friday in Advent. Every day in Lent, Sundays excepted. The Ember Days (see below.) The Vigil of Whitsunday or Pentecost, of the Assumption, of All-Saints, and of Christmas.

N. B. 1. When a fasting day falls upon a Sunday, it is kept on the Saturday preceding that Sunday. To fast, consists in abstaining from flesh-meat, and eating but one full meal in the day, not before 12 o'clock, m. Besides this, a collation, or about the one-fourth of a meal, is allowed in the evening. All who have completed their 21st year are obliged to observe the fasts of the church, unless exempted for some legitimate cause.

2. In the dioceses of New Orleans, St. Louis, Mobile, Vincennes; Dubuque, Little Rock and Chicago, the Friday of the Ember days is the only Friday in Advent on which there is an obligation to fast.

3. It has been directed by the sacred Congregation de Propaganda Fide, that the feast of SS. Peter and Paul be solemnly celebrated in the United States, on the Sunday immediately after the 29th of June, and it is the wish of the Sacred Congregation that the Rt. Rev. Bishops exhort the faithful under their charge, to keep fast on the Saturday preceding that solemn celebration.

DAYS OF ABSTINENCE.

All Fridays and Saturdays, except those Saturdays which fall between the 25th of Dec. and the 2d of Feb., inclusively,* and all the Sundays in Lent. When Christmas falls on a Friday, abstinence is not of precept.

* Abstinence on Saturday has been dispensed with, for the faithful of the U. States, for the space of twenty years, from the year 1840, except when a fast falls on that day.

EMBER DAYS.

Spring—February.....	16, 18, 19.	Autumn—September.....	21, 23, 24.
Summer—May.....	18, 20, 21.	Winter—December.....	14, 16, 17.

The ember-days are the Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays, which occur 1st, in winter, immediately after the 3d Sunday of Advent; 2d, in the spring, immediately after the 1st Sunday in Lent; 3d, in the summer, during Whitsun-week; 4th, in the autumn, immediately after the 10th of September. They are days of fasting and are of great antiquity in the church. The object of their observance is, to consecrate to God the four seasons of the year, by penance; to obtain his blessing on the fruits of the earth, and to beg of him worthy ministers of the church. The ordination of clergymen generally takes place, in Catholic countries, on the ember-days.

HOLYDAYS OF OBLIGATION.

The Circumcision of our Lord—The Epiphany—The Annunciation of the B. V. Mary—The Ascension of our Lord—Corpus Christi—The Assumption of the B. V. Mary—All Saints—Nativity of our Lord or Christmas.

N. B. 1. Sundays and the feasts which fall on them, are not included in this enumeration.

2. In the dioceses of New Orleans, St. Louis, Mobile, Vincennes, Dubuque, Little Rock, and Chicago, the Circumcision, Epiphany, Annunciation, and Corpus Christi, are not holydays of obligation.

3. The sanctification of Sundays and other holydays of obligation consists, 1st, in abstaining from servile work, from all commerce and manual labor, which is not necessary for the worship of God and the support of life; 2d, in returning to God by penance, cleansing our conscience, receiving the Sacraments, and performing other duties of religion. Among these duties, that of assisting at the holy sacrifice of Mass is the principal, and is binding under pain of mortal sin, unless sickness or some other important reason dispense us from this obligation. Though a person may be said to obey to the letter the precept of the church, by hearing Mass, it is certainly a great abuse to restrict to this point only, the whole sanctification which the law of God prescribes. To be satisfied with assisting at low Mass, without performing any other act of religion, as many Christians do, is to go against the spirit of the Church in that particular commandment, to disobey other commandments she has imposed, and not to satisfy the commandments of God.

LITURGICAL INSTRUCTION.

Explanation of the Ornaments and Ceremonies used in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

All the external rites used in the celebration of the holy mysteries are intended for the instruction of the faithful. The chief design of these rites is to commemorate and to represent the passion and death of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. This is plainly to be observed in the altar and its ornaments, as also in the vestments which are worn by the priest.

As to the color of the ornaments with which the priest celebrates the holy mysteries, the White is used on the festivals of our Lord, of the B. Virgin Mary, and of all the saints who are not martyrs.

The Red is used on Pentecost, on the finding and Exaltation of the Cross, and on the Feasts of the Apostles and Martyrs.

The Purple or Violet, which is the penitential color, is used on all the Sundays and Ferias of Advent, and during the whole of the penitential time from Septuagesima Sunday till Easter; as also on all Vigils, Ember Days, and Rogation Days, when the office is of them.

The Green is used on all Sundays and Ferias from Trinity Sunday to Advent exclusively, and from the octave of the Epiphany to Septuagesima Sunday exclusively, when the office is of the Sunday; but in the Paschal time the White is used.

The Black is used on Good Friday, and in Masses of Requiem for the dead; which may be said on any day that is not a Sunday or a double, except from Palm Sunday to Low Sunday, and during the Octaves of Christmas, of the Epiphany, of Pentecost, and of Corpus Christi.

EXPLANATION OF THE CALENDAR.

Ap signifies Apostle—App Apostles—M Martyr—MM Martyrs—P Pope—B Bishop—C Confessor—D Doctor—Ab Abbot—V Virgin—Wid Widow—SS Saints—D M Days of the Month—D W Days of the Week—† marks the days of indulgence—hym. ch. means the change in the hymn Iste Confessor.

The prayers and portions of the Holy Scriptures of which the Mass is composed, are in part the same, and partly different every day. Those fixed are contained in the Ordinary of the Mass, at the beginning of the Missal. The parts changeable or proper are—the Introits, Collects, Gradual, Tracts, Epistles, Gospel, Offertories, Secrets, Communion, and Post-communions—form the subsequent contents of the book. As the Prefaces are not so frequently subject to change, they follow each other in regular succession in the Ordinary of the Mass.

If a double fall on a Sunday, then the Mass of the double is said instead of that of the Sunday, unless it be a privileged Sunday, such as the first Sunday of Advent or Lent, Passion, Palm, Easter, Pentecost, and Trinity Sundays, which are never superseded. The Sundays of the second class, which cannot be superseded except by doubles of the first class, are the second, third, and fourth of Advent, Septuagesima, Sexagesima, and Quinquagesima; as also the second, third, and fourth of Lent. It must, however, be remarked that the gospels of Sundays thus superseded by doubles are never omitted, but are recited at the end of the mass, instead of St. John's gospel; and also that a commemoration of the Sunday, by its proper collect, secret, and post-communion, is always made immediately after the collect, &c., of the festival.

As it sometimes happens that a double is transferred to some future vacant day, on account of the octave of some festival of higher rank intervening, then the difficulty of finding out the day on which such transferred festival is celebrated, as well as the other principal difficulties regarding the service, may be easily removed by consulting the following DIRECTORY, as a guide to the morning as well as the evening service of the church:

1. The office of every day is either double, semi-double, simple, or of the feria.

Of doubles (so called because the anthems are repeated entire, both before and after the psalms at Vespers) some are of the first class, marked thus in the calendar: doub. 1st cl.; others of the second class, and are marked thus: doub. 2d cl.; others are greater doubles, marked gr. doub.; others common doubles, marked doub., or d.

2. Doubles are kept on the day marked in the calendar, unless they fall on some Sunday of the first or second class, some privileged feria, or with certain octaves which take the place of the festivals; in which case they are transferred to the first day not marked either as a double or a semi-double.

Doub. 1st cl. denotes a great solemnity; doub. 2d cl. a lesser solemnity; greater double marks the feast to be of higher rite than a common double; double is the common and most general rank of saints; semi-double is less than a double; simple shows the feast to be of the lowest rite; fer., or feria day, is a week day having no feast; great fer. are weeks in Lent, Advent, &c.; Vig. vigil, is the eve of a great solemnity.

The Sundays of the 1st class which take place of all doubles are—

The first Sunday of Advent, first Sunday of Lent, Passion, Palm, Easter, Low, Whit and Trinity Sundays.

The Sundays of the second class which take place, also, of all doubles except those of the first class, and of which, in that case, a commemoration is made at mass and in both vespers, are the second, third, and fourth of Advent; septuagesima, sexagesima, and quinquagesima, the second, third, and fourth of Lent.

The ferias, which enjoy the same privileges as Sundays of the first class, are Ash-Wednesday, All Holy Week, Whitsun Eve, the whole octaves of Easter and Whitsuntide.

In like manner within the octave of Epiphany, no feast less than a first class can be kept.

On all other Sundays of the year, if a double occur, it is kept with a commemoration of the Sunday at Mass, and at Vespers also, except the following day be a feast of the first class.

3. A semi-double (so called because only a part of the anthem is said before each psalm at vespers) is marked in the calendar thus, semid., and occurring on any Sunday whatsoever, is put off to the first vacant day; that is, the first day on which there is neither double nor semi-double marked in the calendar. The same is to be observed of all semi-doubles occurring within the octave of Corpus Christi.

4. Simples have no mark in the calendar, and are never transferred; but if they fall on Sunday, or on any other day when the office cannot be said of them, a commemoration is made of the first vespers, and at mass; unless it be a feast of the first class, (on which no notice is taken of simples,) or of the second class, in which case a commemoration of them is made in the Lauds, and at a low private mass only.

5. The following ferias, called greater ferias, take place of all simples of which there is only a commemoration made at mass, viz: the ferias of Advent and of Lent, the Ember Days, and Tuesdays in Rogation Week. A commemoration is also made of the ferias of Advent, Lent, at vespers and mass, whatever feast happens; but of the Ember Days and Tuesday in Rogation Week, only at mass.

6. If a vigil happen within the octave, then the vigil, with a commemoration of the octave, unless there be a double or a semi-double feast that day, in which case the mass is of the feast, with a commemoration of the octave and of the vigil. But if a vigil occur on a feast of the first class, there is no commemoration made of it.

If a festival that has a vigil, fall on a Monday, the mass of the vigil is said on the foregoing Saturday, except the vigil of Christmas and of the Epiphany.

If a vigil happen in Advent, the mass is of the vigil, with a commemoration of the feria, except the vigil of Christmas.

If a vigil happen in Lent, or on an ember day, the mass is of the feria, with a commemoration of the vigil.

In the paschal time there is no office of vigil, except that of Ascension Eve, which, however, is no fast.

7. When several festivals have been translated from their proper days, they are afterwards to be kept in this order: first, those that are doubles, and then those that are semi-doubles; and among the doubles or semidoubles, those whose proper days first occurred are to be kept first.

8. Coll. or Collect, signifies the oration or prayer. Upon all doubles one collect, secret or post-communion, only, is said; except they fall on a Sunday, or within the same octave, or upon some vigil, or in the time of Lent or Advent, or except it occurs with some simple; in all such cases, two collects, &c., are said; one of the double, the other of the Sunday, octave, &c.

Upon Sundays, and all semidoubles, are said three collects, secrets or post-communions; excepting Sundays which occur within an octave, on which are said two collects, &c., one of the Sunday, the other of the octave.

The second and third collects, secrets, and post-communions, to be said on Sundays and semidoubles in the different seasons of the year, are specified in their proper places.

Upon semidoubles occurring within octaves, or on vigils, &c., the second collect, secret, and post-communion, are a commemoration of the octave or vigil; and the third of the B. V. M., but within the octaves of the Blessed Virgin, the third is of the Holy Ghost.

On semidoubles in Advent, the second collect, secret, and post-communion, are the collect, &c., of the foregoing Sunday; the third of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Upon simples and ferias three collects, &c., are said; but if the priest please he may say five or seven, to be taken out of the divers prayers in the common.

9. When the bishop of a diocess appoints a collect to be said at mass, it is to be placed after the collects of the day, and cannot be substituted for the collect which is marked ad lib. This prayer prescribed by the bishop, is said at all masses, except that of the first class, and conuertual and high mass of second class; at low mass of 2 cl. it may be said or omitted. It is omitted also on Christmas eve, vigil of Pentecost, Palm Sunday, Holy Thursday, and Holy Saturday.

10. Upon week days which have no proper office, nor any saint's day occurring thereon, the mass is of the foregoing Sundays.

11. Upon days within octaves, when no proper mass is assigned, the mass is said as on the feast, with three collects, &c. N. B.—The days within octaves are kept as semidoubles only.

12. The collect of the B. V. M., within octaves on vigils and on semidoubles within paschal time, is found in the votive mass of the Blessed Virgin Mary, from Advent to Christmas the collect of the B. V. M. is read in the mass of first Sunday of Advent, from Christmas to Candlemas the collect of the Blessed Virgin, as in the mass of the Circumcision.

13. The collects for Church and Pope are seen in the mass of the first Sunday of Advent, one of them is only recited at the choice of the priest, generally they are said in turn, when mentioned in the Directory. The collect of the Pope is said on the anniversary days of his creation and coronation; the creation here signifies his election to the sovereign Pontificate.

14. On the anniversary day of the consecration of the bishop, the collect for his installation is said at mass by the clergy of the diocess. If the bishop be translated from another diocess, the collect is said on the anniversary of his translation, that is, the date of the pope's letter of translation. The collect of the bishop is the same as that of the pope, except that the names of the prelate and of the diocess are mentioned.

15. The words ad lib. signify that one is at liberty to recite any of the occasional collects or prayers, found towards the end of the missal.

16. The gospels assigned on Sundays are never omitted. Wherefore if a double be kept on a Sunday, at the end of mass is read the gospel of the Sunday, instead of that of St. John; and the same is observed when a double or semidouble is kept on any day in Lent, or on a vigil or ember day.

17. The Gloria in excelsis is said at Mass, whenever the Te Deum has been said after Matins; except at Mass on Holy Thursday and Holy Saturday, when the Gloria is said though the Te Deum is omitted in the office. The Gloria is omitted in Masses for the dead, in votive Masses, even during the Paschal time or an octave, except in the Mass de B. Maria in Sabbato, or de Angelis, or when the votive Mass is said for an important object or some public affair of the Church, and without the purple vestments.

18. Low Masses votive or of requiem for the dead, cannot be celebrated on Sunday or on a double feast. They are also prohibited from the vigil of Christmas to the octave-day of the Epiphany inclusively, and on Ash-Wednesday; also, from Palm-Sunday to Low-Sunday inclusively; moreover, from the vigil of Pentecost to Trinity Sunday included, and during the octave of Corpus Christi.

19. High Masses of requiem for the dead, where the body is not present, are forbidden on double feasts; but where the body is present and unburied, they may be celebrated on Sundays (provided the parochial Mass be not omitted) and on doubles, even of the first class, which are not festivals of obligation. But these Masses, even when the body is present, are prohibited on the Nativity, Epiphany, and Ascension of our Lord, Easter-day, Pentecost, Corpus Christi, Assumption of the B. V. Mary, All-Saints, and the three days before Easter; also, on the feast of the principal patron, that of the titular saint, and such festivals as are celebrated with much solemnity.

20. The offices of the Sacred Passion, which are marked for the different Fridays of Lent, are ad libitum: that is, they may be recited by those who wish, but there is no obligation to do so. The same is to be said of the office of the M. Blessed Sacrament on Thursdays, and that of the conception of the B. V. Mary on Saturday, during the year. But if any one of these offices be omitted, the office occurring on the day according to the rubrics, should be recited.

21. In the office of the B. V. Mary and during the octave, the hymns conclude with the strophe, Jesu tibi sit gloria, Qui natus es, &c.; and in the Respons. at Prime, is said Qui natus es, &c., unless otherwise marked. Also, from the first Vespers of Christmas to the first Vespers of Epiphany, on the feast of the H. name of Jesus, and during the octave of Corpus Christi. The same is observed in the office of the Blessed Sacrament on Thursdays, and that of the B. V. Mary on Saturdays, from Complin of the preceding day, (if even a commemoration of these offices be made) until None inclusively.

PASTORAL LETTER.

The Archbishops and Bishops of the United States in National Council Assembled at Baltimore, to the Clergy and Laity of their Charge, Health and Benediction !

Venerable Brethren of the Clergy, and Beloved Children of the Laity :

ASSEMBLED in National Council, under the sanction of Our Most Holy Father, Pius IX, we find no duty more imperative, and, at the same time, more agreeable to our feelings, than to address the flock committed to our care. The attachment to the doctrines and practices of our Holy Religion which characterizes the Catholics of the United States ; the docility and obedience which they have uniformly manifested, the cordial union which, notwithstanding the diversity of origin, customs and language, reigns throughout the whole Catholic Body in this vast country ; their general fervor and devotedness in the exercise of the virtues of the Gospel, fill our hearts with joy, and more than compensate us for the cares and solitudes of the pastoral office. We are able to adopt the words of the apostle : "Our mouth is open to you—our heart is enlarged." * "Great is our confidence for you ; great is our glorying for you. We are filled with comfort : We exceedingly abound with joy in all our tribulation." †

The authority we exercise has been given us by Christ. We are His Ministers ; ambassadors for Him. We claim no power, and seek no influence which He has not willed us to have. It is our duty to guard the sacred deposit of the faith ; for to us has it been committed, and from us will it be one day demanded by our Heavenly Master. Having vouchsafed to speak, at sundry times, and in divers manners, in times past to the fathers by the prophets, last of all hath God spoken to us by His Son ; and this Divine Son—the brightness of His Father's glory, the figure of His substance—has made us the depositaries of his doctrine, and "given to us the ministry of reconciliation." ‡ Man having had need that God should teach him, ever requires to receive this divine teaching through a channel in which it shall be preserved from whatever might taint its purity, and thus destroy its authority. Not only must we know that God has spoken ; we must also be assured that His voice is heard throughout all time. Although no longer visible to men, Christ, our God, has not left us orphans. He has sent the Holy Spirit, the Paraclete whom He promised ; He has infused into the earthly elements which He selected for the formation of His Church, the breath of undying life ; and that Holy Spirit ever abides in the Church, teaches her all truth, preserves her from every error, and renders her a sure guide to the pastures of salvation, to the fountain whence springs up water to eternal life. Thus is fulfilled the word : "He that heareth you, heareth me : " § thus is the Church, "the House of the Living God, the Pillar and the ground of truth ; " ¶ and on this is grounded the obligation which we urge with no less confidence than did the Apostles of Christ : "Obey your prelates, and be subject to them. For they watch as being to render an account of your souls, that they may do this with joy, and not with grief.*

The source of this authority is Christ. The channel through which it is communicated to the other members of the church is the Bishop of Rome. The successor of St. Peter is the heir of the privileges conferred on the Prince of the Apostles; on him as on the solid foundation which the wise architect has chosen, is the church built; to him, in the person of Peter, for whom Christ specially prayed, has it been given to confirm his brethren. As in the case of every other country where the Church has been established, our hierarchy has grown up under his fostering care; has developed itself, with his sanction and approval, in dignity and number; and its members, although spread over the wide extent which separates ocean from ocean, have, on the present occasion, joyfully obeyed his summons to assemble in National Council, under the presidency of a special representative of the Holy See in the person of the Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore. We rejoice at the occasion of proclaiming our attachment to the centre of Catholic unity; and we exhort you brethren, to cherish a love for the Holy See, in which is preserved an unbroken succession of Pastors from the time of Christ to the present day; which has condemned all the errors that men have sought to combine with the doctrines of revelation; and which ever watches over the integrity of faith and ever guards the purity of ecclesiastical discipline. Let us hope that the erroneous ideas entertained by so many of our fellow-citizens, of the nature of the power which we recognise in the Bishop of Rome, as successor of St. Peter, will be removed, and that this chief See, whence sacerdotal unity has derived its origin, may be acknowledged as the centre of ecclesiastical authority, the source of all that is grand and imposing in the extent, union and permanence of the Church. Let us pray that all who are separated from the Church may be brought to the knowledge of the truth; that the appalling extremes to which error is hurrying those who have cast off the authority appointed by Christ, may cause men to recognise a principle which alone can unite them in the one fold of the one shepherd. Let your united prayers ascend to the Father of mercies, who wishes all men to be saved, and to come to the knowledge of the truth, that this most desirable end be attained, remembering that what is impossible to man may be rendered possible by the influence of divine grace.

Among the causes which, in a few instances, and, principally in days now happily past, led to the forgetfulness of the extent which belongs to the authority that we exercise, must be reckoned the attempt to apply to the Catholic Church, in the administration of the temporalities belonging to her, principles and rules foreign to her spirit and irreconcilable with the authority of her Pastors. The result was such as might have been expected. Peace and harmony were disturbed, the progress of religion checked or entirely impeded, and the Church reproached with the misconduct of her unworthy children. For the purpose of guarding against the recurrence of such evils, we deem it necessary to make a public and authentic declaration of Catholic principles on this important subject. Whatever is offered to God, and solemnly consecrated to His service, whether it be the material temple in which His worshippers assemble ; or the ground set apart for the interment of those who repose in God's-field awaiting the promised resurrection, or property, real or personal, intended for the purpose of Divine service, or for the education, support and maintenance of the clergy,—every such thing is sacred and belongs to the Church, and cannot be withdrawn from the service of God without the guilt of sacrilege. The donor or donors of such gifts can exercise no right of ownership over them. With these temporal things, thus separated from common purposes and set apart for the service of the sanctuary, the Church cannot allow any interference that is not subordinate to her authority. The Bishop of each diocese is the representative and organ of that authority, and, without his sanction, no arrangement, howsoever in itself of a purely temporal nature, that has reference to religious worship, has, or can have, force or validity. Whenever the Bishop deems it advisable to acquiesce in arrangements for the administration of Church temporalities which have not originated with the ecclesiastical authority, or which may have arisen from ignorance of its rights, or from a spirit of opposition to them, we declare that such arrangements have force and effect in the Catholic Church, in consequence of such acquiescence, and not from any other cause or principle whatever. And we furthermore declare, that whenever the Bishop of a diocese recognises such arrangements, or acquiesces in them, those charged with the care of church temporalities, whether laymen or clergymen, are bound to render an annual account of their administration to the Bishop, agreeably to the rule prescribed in such cases by the Holy Council of Trent.*

* Heb. xiii. 17.

We exhort you, brethren, to sustain your prelates in their efforts to maintain the discipline of the Church in this no less than in other matters. It is from them, and not from the stranger, and still less from disobedient brethren,—that you are to learn her principles, and those rules of conduct which the experience of centuries has taught her to regard as conducive to your real interests. In this no less than in matters of faith and practice, you have to attend to the Apostle's admonition : "Obey your prelates and be subject to them."†

The Church claims obedience not only when she teaches you the truths of faith, but also when she prescribes rules of conduct. We have the consolation to know that her claims are recognised, to their full extent, by the vast majority of her children ; but we know also, that some who profess to look upon her as the Mother who has brought them forth in Christ,—who alone has the words of eternal life ;—have, in disregard of her authority,—attached themselves to certain societies, which she either entirely condemns, or views with well founded apprehension. What want, either of body or of mind, is left unprovided for in the principles she teaches and in the holy associations which she has sanctioned ? Because men, having rejected the principle of Christian charity, feel the void which they themselves have created, they endeavor to substitute human virtues as the remedy for the evils which nothing less than a divine grace can heal. There can, then, be no necessity for the children of the Church to seek out of her what they can find in her alone ; nor any excuse for the insubordination which would regard the exercise of her authority in this matter as uncalled for or injudicious. We exhort our venerable Brethren the clergy to urge the faithful to observe all the regulations on this subject that have emanated from the Holy See, as also those contained in the decrees of the Councils of Baltimore, which have received the sanction of the Supreme Pastor of the Church.

The wants of the Church in this vast country, so rapidly advancing in population and prosperity, impose on us, your pastors, and on you, our children in Christ, peculiar and very arduous duties. We not only have to build up the Church, by the preaching of the Gospel, and the inculcation of all the virtues it teaches, but also to supply the material wants of religious worship in proportion to the unexampled rapidity with which our flocks increase. We have to establish missions in places where, but a few years since, none, or but few, Catholics were to be found, and where now the children of the Church cry with clamorous importunity for the bread of life. We have to build the Church, where before God's name was not publicly worshipped; and to multiply his temples where they no longer suffice for the constantly increasing wants of the faithful. We have to provide a ministry for the present and future wants of the country, and, in this matter, have to contend with difficulties which are unknown in countries where Religion has been long established, and where the piety and zeal of past generations have furnished ample means for this most important object. We have to provide for the Catholic education of our youth. Not only have we to erect and maintain the Church, the Seminary and the School-house, but we have to found Hospitals, establish orphanages, and provide for every want of suffering humanity, which Religion forbids us to neglect. We thank the Giver of all good gifts for the extraordinary benediction which He has hitherto bestowed upon our efforts, and those of the venerable men whose places we fill. We rejoice at having the opportunity of bearing public testimony to the generous assistance which we have received from our flocks in our respective dioceses. Much, however, as has been done, much still remains to be accomplished. Our churches are nowhere equal to the wants of the Catholic population, and in many places are far from being sufficiently spacious to afford one-half of our people the opportunity of attending Divine worship. We, therefore, exhort you, Brethren, to co-operate generously and cheerfully with your pastors, when they appeal to you in behalf of works of charity and religious zeal. In contributing to Divine worship, you make an offering to God of the gifts He has bestowed on you, and a portion of which he requires should be consecrated to His service, as a testimony of your continued dependence on His Sovereign Mercy. We hope that the examples of your Catholic forefathers, and even of some among yourselves, will be generally felt and not unfrequently imitated; and that here, as well as elsewhere, the Church will be able to show the proofs of her children's faith in the numerous temples raised to the honor of God's name, in the beauty of His Sanctuary which the true Christian will ever love, and in the ample and permanent provision made for the maintenance of public worship.

The education of candidates for the ministry is one of our most urgent wants. Notwithstanding the multiplied privations, difficulties and embarrassments, which our predecessors experienced, and which have not yet entirely disappeared, they spared no sacrifice in order to rear up successors to their ministry who should be equal to the wants, and worthy of the piety, of their people. These wants increase with the increase of the population ; and we have no hesitation in avowing that the efforts hitherto made to supply our churches with priests are far from being adequate. To attain this—the most important of all means to be employed for the maintenance and diffusion of Religion—we need your co-operation, which we are confident will not be refused. We ask not for ourselves, but for you, and for your children. We seek to avert the evil of hearing the cries of the little ones in Christ for the bread of life, without being able to afford them one to break it to them. We seek to avert the evils resulting from the want of a regular and permanent source for the perpetuation of the ministry, which we have so often experienced, and which, if left without a remedy, must continue to produce most disastrous results.

Without priests educated in the science of the sanctuary and trained up to the practice of its virtues, under our own eyes, or under the care of those to whom we may commit this important trust, we cannot hope to behold the ministry adapted to the wants of the country, or equal to the work which the providence of God has assigned to us. Co-operate, then, generously and perseveringly, with your respective prelates in their efforts to provide a suitable ministry for our infant churches ; cultivate the virtuous dispositions of those among your children, who, attracted by the beauty of holiness, manifest in an early age the desire—most frequently the inspiration of divine grace—to consecrate themselves to the service of the altar. Let it be for you a matter of devout thanksgiving and holy exultation, that your offspring prefer the service of God's altar, to all the attractions of worldly ambition and cupidity. Invoke by fervent prayer the mercy of God, that he may send laborers into His vineyard, that he may raise up ministers of His sanctuary, powerful in word and work, and who, while they possess that knowledge which the lips of the priest are commanded to keep, may exhibit all the virtues of the apostolate which they are called to exercise.

No portion of our charge fills us with greater solicitude than that which our Divine Master, by word and example, has taught us to regard with more than ordinary sentiments of affection—the younger members of our flock. If our youth grow up in ignorance of their religious duties or unpractised in their consoling fulfilment ; if, instead of the words of eternal life, which find so full and sweet an echo in the heart of innocence, the principles of error, unbelief or indifferentism, are imparted to them ; if the natural repugnance, even in the happiest period of life, to bend under the yoke of discipline, be increased by the example of those whose relation to them gives them influence or authority,—what are we to expect but the disappointment of all the hopes which cause the Church to rejoice in the multiplication of her children ! We therefore address you brethren, in the language of affectionate warning and solemn exhortation. Guard carefully those little ones of Christ ; “suffer them to approach Him, and prevent them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven.”* To you, Christian parents, God has committed these His children, whom He permits you to regard as yours ; and your natural affection towards whom must ever be subordinate to the will of Him “from whom all paternity in heaven and on earth is named.”† Remember that if for them you are the representatives of God, the source of their existence, you are to be for them depositaries of His authority, teachers of His law, and models by imitating which they may be perfect, even as their Father in heaven is perfect. You are to watch over the purity of their faith and morals with jealous vigilance, and to instil into their young hearts principles of virtue and perfection. What shall be the anguish of the parent's heart,—what the terrible expectation of judgment that will fill his soul, should his children perish through his criminal neglect, or his obstinate refusal to be guided in the discharge of his paternal duties, by the authority of God's Church.* To avert this evil, give your children a Christian education, that is an education based on religious principles, accompanied by religious practices and always subordinate to religious influence. Be not led astray by the false and delusive theories which are so prevalent, and which leave youth without religion, and, consequently, without anything to control the passions, promote the real happiness of the individual, and make society find in the increase of its members, a source of security and prosperity. Listen not to those who would persuade you that religion can be separated from secular instruction. If your children, while they advance in human sciences, are not taught the science of the saints, their minds will be filled with every error, their hearts will be receptacles of every vice, and that very learning which they have acquired, in itself so good and so necessary, deprived of all that could shed on it the light of heaven, will be an additional means of destroying the happiness of the child, embittering still more the chalice of parental disappointment, and weakening the foundations of social order. Listen to our voice, which tells you to walk in the ancient paths ; to bring up your children as you yourselves were brought up by your pious parents ; to make religion the foundation of the happiness you wish to secure for those whom you love so tenderly, and the promotion of whose interests is the motive of all your efforts, the solace which sustains you in all your fatigues and privations. Encourage the establishment and support of Catholic schools ; make every sacrifice which may be necessary for this object : spare our hearts the pain of beholding the youth whom, after the example of our Master, we so much love, involved in all the evils of an uncatholic education, evils too multiplied and too obvious to require that we should do more than raise our voices in solemn protest against the system from which they spring. In urging on you the discharge of this duty, we are acting on the suggestion of the Sovereign Pontiff, who in an encyclical letter, dated 21 November, 1851, calls on all the Bishops of the Catholic world, to provide for the religious education of youth. We are following the example of the Irish Hierarchy, who are courageously opposing the introduction of a system based on the principle which we condemn, and who are now endeavoring to unite religious with secular instruction of the highest order, by the institution of a Catholic University,—an undertaking in the success of which we necessarily feel a deep interest, and which, as having been suggested by the Sovereign Pontiff, powerfully appeals to the sympathies of the whole Catholic world.

Our Holy Father Pius IX. has recommended to our notice, as well as to that of all the Bishops of the Church, the Society established at

* John xvii, 12.

Lyons in France, for the purpose of aiding apostolic missionaries in the propagation of the Faith. Independently of the authority which has thus spoken, our own feelings would prompt us to address you on the subject. From the time of its first establishment, almost thirty years ago, up to the present time, this association has contributed, generously and uninterruptedly, to the support of our missions. If our churches have so rapidly multiplied ; if our religious and educational establishments are now comparatively numerous ; if new missions and new diocesses have, amidst most appalling discouragements, still continued to be founded,—we must, in truth and justice, acknowledge, that in all this the Association for the Propagation of the Faith has afforded us the most generous and most enlightened co-operation. We feel the obligations which we have to an association which is identified with the progress of religion in every part of the world ; and we, therefore, exhort you, Brethren, to encourage its establishment in your respective districts, agreeably to the wishes of the Sovereign Pontiff, who desires to see the whole Catholic world united in an effort to diffuse the Gospel of Christ throughout all nations. The small annual contribution made to this Association will not interfere with any other effort of Christian zeal or charity ; and we cherish the conviction, that its establishment will draw down from God the choicest blessings on all who unite in this truly good work.

Attachment to the civil institutions under which you live, has always marked your conduct : and if we address you on this subject, it is not from any apprehension that you are likely to vary from the course which you have hitherto pursued. After the example of the apostle, St. Paul, we cannot, however, deem it altogether unnecessary to exhort you ever to discharge your civil duties from the higher motives which religion suggests. Obey the public authorities, not only for wrath but also for conscience sake. Show your attachment to the institutions of our beloved country by prompt compliance with all their requirements, and by the cautious jealousy with which you guard against the least deviation from the rules which they prescribe for the maintenance of public order and private rights. Thus will you refute the idle babbling of foolish men, and will best approve yourselves worthy of the privileges you enjoy, and overcome, by the sure test of practical patriotism, all the prejudices which a misapprehension of your principles but too often produces.

We now address, in a particular manner, our venerable Brethren of the clergy, our fellow-laborers in the vineyard, the praise of whose labors is not with men but with God, and who await the coming of the Master of the vineyard, when the Shepherd and Bishop of souls shall bestow an eternal recompense on zeal and perseverance. Agreeably to the direction of the Holy Council of Trent, we have to exhort them, to endeavor, by the whole tenor of their lives, no less than by the exercise of the apostolic ministry, to guide the flock of Christ to safe and salutary pastures. To the ministers of the New Law the words spoken by God to the Levitical priesthood are more imperatively addressed : “Be ye holy ; for I, the Lord, your God, am holy.”* Great as is the dignity of the priesthood, holy as are its functions, we must ever remember that we carry about this precious treasure in frail vessels ; that we are surrounded with infirmity; and that to us especially is addressed the admonition: "Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation."^{*} We are the light of the world; and to our actions, even more than to our words, do the faithful look up for the rule they are to follow, the example they are to imitate. We are the salt of the earth; and by the wholesome severity of Christian discipline, we are to preserve from the all pervading corruption of the age those whom the Providence of God has committed to our guardianship. Not only have we to consider the faithful of our charge; we have also to remember those other sheep which are not yet of the fold of Christ, and whom the Shepherd of souls designs to bring within its sacred pale. Let us be mindful of the apostolic admonition, and "give offence to no one, that our ministry may not be reviled;"[†] that the prejudices of education may not be strengthened; or the persevering misrepresentation by which we are assailed receive apparent confirmation from the faults or imperfections that may be discovered in us. Let us be the example of the faithful in word, in conversation, in charity, in faith, in chastity; let us attend to reading, to exhortation and to doctrine, and thus we shall save ourselves and those that hear us.

Nor can we close this Letter without addressing the consecrated Virgins, who, in the admirable variety of occupations, suggested by zeal and charity, are now, as in the days of St. Cyprian, the more illustrious portion of the flock of Christ, the flower and ornament of the Church. Them we address, after the example of the same holy martyr, in language of affectionate reverence rather than in the words of authority. Them also we must exhort to keep their lamps filled with the oil of good works; to labor assiduously to render themselves still more and more worthy of their Heavenly Spouse, by going from virtue to virtue; and them also we must admonish, that in proportion to the sublime course of religious perfection on which they have entered, is the solicitude we feel that they should secure the crown which is to be their exceeding great reward. To each of them, the Spouse of their souls says: "Behold I come quickly; hold fast that which thou hast, that no man take thy crown."[‡]

And to you, beloved children of the Laity,—our joy and our crown,—we desire, in concluding, to address a few words of affectionate admonition. We know your faith and the fervor which so many of you exhibit: but our office is one of solicitude and concern. Until the victory is achieved we cannot be without apprehension; and our cares will only cease when we shall have given an account of the stewardship which we have received. Although of the household of God, and children of the faith, you have, by good works, to make your calling and election sure. You are to co-operate with us in preaching the Gospel of Christ by the care of your own households, and by the good example you give to all who come within the sphere of your influence. Walk worthy of your calling; refute the calumnies which are so frequently uttered against the Mother who has brought you forth in Christ, by having your conversation good among those who are estranged from her influence; "that whereas they speak against you as evil doers, they may, by the good works which they shall behold in you, glorify God in the day of visitation.”* “For the rest, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever modest, whatsoever just, whatsoever holy, whatsoever lovely, whatsoever of good fame, if there be any virtue, any praise of discipline, think on these things. The things which you have both learned and received, and heard and seen—these do ye, and the God of peace shall be with you.”† “The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.”† We direct this our Pastoral Letter to be read publicly in all the churches subject to our jurisdiction.

NOTICE OF THE RT. REV. JOHN JOSEPH CHANCHE, LATE BISHOP OF NATCHEZ.

JOHN JOSEPH CHANCHE was born at Baltimore, October 4th, 1795, of respectable parents, who, with many others, had sought refuge in the United States from the terrors of the insurrection in St. Domingo. With pious inclinations he entered St. Mary's Seminary in his native place, at eleven years of age, with a view to acquire the knowledge and virtues which would fit him for the ecclesiastical state. Diligently intent upon the object of his pursuit, he soon qualified himself for advancement, through the preliminary grades, to the high dignity of the priesthood. At the age of fifteen, he received the holy tonsure at the hands of the venerable Archbishop Carroll. A few years after, Archbishop Neale conferred upon him the minor orders; and subsequently, on the 5th of June, 1819, he was promoted to the sacerdotal office by Archbishop Mareschal. Having become a member of the society St. Sulpitius, under whose fostering care he had been educated, he continued in St. Mary's College the duties of Professor, which he had exercised before his ordination, and was soon appointed to the office of vice-president of that institution. In 1834, he succeeded the Rev. Mr. Eccleston in the presidency of the college, and retained that position until his elevation to the episcopacy, in 1841. As the principal of an establishment of learning, Mr. Chanche exhibited much wisdom. While he enforced the observance of discipline with a firm hand, his bland and gentle manner conciliated the esteem of all under his charge, and rendered him highly popular in the community at large. At no period did the institution over which he presided enjoy a better name or move on more prosperously than under his administration. The same qualities continued to win for him a general esteem when he was called to a wider sphere of duty. Religion had long suffered in the State of Mississippi, from the want of laborers to cultivate that portion of the spiritual vineyard, and Mr. Chanche was appointed by the Holy See, at the recommendation of the 4th Provincial Council of Baltimore, to the charge of that important district. He received the episcopal consecration at the hands of the Most Rev. Dr. Eccleston, on the 11th of March, 1841, and a few months after he repaired to his diocese. Here he beheld everything calculated to discourage his efforts, if he had not resolved to toil in earnest and encounter all manner of difficulties, to promote the cause which had been entrusted to him. There was not a church; there was, at most, not more than one, in the whole State of Mississippi, and no clergymen resided within its limits to dispense the consolations of religion. But, Bishop Chanche gradually succeeded in imparting a more cheering aspect to this desolate scene. He has left behind him at least eleven churches, and the same number of priests, to attest the efficacy of his zeal, while the elegant Cathedral which he erected in Natchez, (said to be the most beautiful church in the West,) is an enduring monument of both his enterprise and taste. He also obtained for his diocese the valuable services of the Sisters of Charity, from Emmitsburg, and was maturing other undertakings equally conducive to the interests of education and the diffusion of the faith. It was in the midst of this usefulness that he repaired to Baltimore, in the spring of last year, to participate in the proceedings of the first National Council of that city. On that occasion he performed the office of chief promoter of the council. There was no one present at that venerable assembly, whether bishop or priest, who could witness with more heartfelt interest the wonderful progress of catholicity in the United States which the national council exhibited. He had beheld the church, in this country, in its feeblest commencement, when but one prelate was charged with the spiritual care of all the Catholics in the United States, few indeed in number, but extending from the Atlantic border to the far West, and from Maine to the Gulf of Mexico. He had watched its steady and rapid advancement, and he now contemplated an increase of its force, which was calculated to excite equal astonishment and admiration.

After the close of the council, Bishop Chanche visited Emmitsburg, and on his return from that part of the country he stopped at Frederick city, for the purpose of a brief stay among some of his friends. There he was attacked with a violent form of cholera morbus, which rapidly assumed the type of dysentery, and notwithstanding the skilful efforts of his medical advisers and the most assiduous attentions of his friends, he ultimately sank under its fatal influence. During his illness, which lasted two weeks, his deportment was in every respect that of the truly christian prelate. Not a murmur or complaint escaped his lips. Perceiving that his strength was declining, he made every necessary arrangement of his temporal and ecclesiastical affairs, and sought in the holy sacraments of religion that increase of faith and grace which can alone support and console the christian in his departure from life. He breathed his last on the 22d of July, in the 57th year of his age, and the 12th of his episcopacy. His remains were conveyed to Baltimore, at his own request, and after a solemn service for the repose of his soul, were deposited in the Cathedral cemetery in the suburbs of the city. His funeral obsequies took place in the chapel of St. Mary's seminary, the Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore being present on the occasion, and officiating at the absolution following the mass of requiem.

In his person, Bishop Chanche was of rather a tall and commanding figure, and prepossessing in his appearance. The grace and dignity with which he conducted the ceremonials of the church, on marked occasions, will long be remembered. By his courteous bearing and suavity of manner, as well as by the sacerdotal virtues that graced his life, he won the esteem and respect of all who knew him.

The friends of Bishop Chanche, in Baltimore, have adopted measures for the erection of a handsome marble monument over his remains, as a testimonial of the high regard which they entertained for his character.

LITERARY INSTITUTIONS FOR YOUNG MEN.

GEORGETOWN COLLEGE, D. C.

Some changes have been effected during the past year, in the internal arrangements of the College, by which a larger number of boarders can be accommodated, and a separation has been lately made of the very young students from the seniors. The necessity and advantages of such an arrangement must be evident to every person who has the least experience in the education of youth. Distinct dormitories, play-ground and study hall, have been assigned to the younger boys, and persons appointed to superintend their studies who will give them such attention as their tender age requires.

The course of Philosophy will be in future extended to two years for such as may wish to pursue the study of Ethics, together with the fundamental principles of civil, political, and international law. The higher branches of Mathematics and Natural Philosophy, will also be continued, together with practical instruction in Astronomy in the College Observatory, thus affording the lover of this delightful science advantages not to be found but in very few institutions in the country.

INSTITUTIONS.

ACADEMY FOR BOYS,

At Dubuque.

This school which is conducted by three Brothers of the Christian Doctrine has 130 scholars, divided most properly into three classes; kept in three large separate rooms, in which all the branches of a truly solid education are taught. It is to be observed that this school, as well as that of the Sisters of Charity in Dubuque, receives its share of the funds distributed by the Directors of the Public Schools in the State of Iowa; and that the enjoyment of this right was obtained without much difficulty by the Bishop of this Diocess.

ST. JOSEPH'S ACADEMY.

St. Joseph's Female Academy is about eight miles from the city of Dubuque. The site is elevated, healthy, beautiful, and surrounded by a rich alluvial soil. The chapel and buildings are plain but neat. At a short distance stands St. Joseph's Church; its congregation is already numerous.

The children of the country come early on Sundays for instruction: they are invited, and cordially provided with a plentiful dinner by the Very Rev. Superior.

This purchase of one square mile has been made for the mother-house of the community, with funds furnished by the generous Philadelphians, as an indemnity to an unoffending society, who had suffered in that city by the burnings of May 1844.

Another fire has afflicted this community; but by much exertion, and with the help of generous persons, a large stone house is commenced, which will make the establishment much more conspicuous and comfortable.

ST. MARY'S FEMALE ACADEMY,

Already known to the public, is re-opened in Dubuque, to which is attached a large day school. The use of this property, for the time being, has been given by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Loras to the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin.

The Mother Superior is Sister Mary Frances Clarke, to whom letters are to be directed. There are in the community at present, forty sisters, including novices. Last season they had at St. Joseph's Academy 22 boarders. Parents or guardians residing at a distance are required to have a responsible agent in the city of Dubuque.

Terms.—Board and tuition, per annum, including bed, washing and mending.....$100 00
Music, and use of the Piano, quarterly,..... 10 00
French or German, per quarter,..... 4 00

The Very Rev. T. C. Donaghoe is the founder and the director of this new order.

An extensive and valuable piece of land, including rich prairies well watered and good timber, with valuable improvements on it, has been generously given by the Rt. Rev. Bishop, to a branch of the Cistercian Order, called the Trappists, who came lately from Mt. Mellerey in Ireland. They have purchased, at Congress price, much of the neighboring land, and they have built a chapel, where many persons come to mass on Sunday, and a school house where they teach every day. They keep their rules well and give great edification to the people. Their number is forty, including five priests, viz: Very Rev. Francis Walsh, Prior, James O'Gorman, Sub-prior; Bernard McCaffrey, Clement Smyth, Patrick Mohan. The name of the monastery, which is situated 12 miles from Dubuque, is: Our Lady of the New Mellerey.

Dubuque Catholic Society, which was formed in 1837, is chiefly intended to support the church and the clergy of the cathedral. It includes now all the male members of the congregation, who are 18 years old, or above. They pay 25 cents per month, or $3 a year.

Ladies Catholic Association, of Dubuque, for charitable purposes. The ladies meet on every second Sunday of the month, and pay 12½ cents per month, chiefly for the support of the poor and orphans. A charity sermon is preached occasionally.

Sunday Schools, at Dubuque, Makoqueti, Davenport, Burlington, &c.

A School at Makoqueti, Jackson county, under the direction of the Rev. Jer. Tracy.

A large and well built brick house, in the rear of the Cathedral, has been completed. It is at present occupied as a residence for the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese. The interior arrangements are adapted for the purposes of a Seminary.

There are Temperance Societies in Dubuque, and several other places.

SISTERS OF MERCY,

Providence, R. I.

There are now in this community six professed sisters, twenty novices, and five postulants. Sister Mary Frances Warden, Superioress.

The Institute of Mercy embraces the following objects : the care taking and support of female orphans; the support and protection of poor and destitute, but virtuous young women, until provided with situations; the visitation of the sick, and the education of children of their sex.

FEMALE ACADEMY,

Providence, R. I.

The sisters keep, at their residence, an academy for young ladies, where all the branches essential to a complete education are taught by sisters eminently qualified.

BOYS' ACADEMY,

Providence, R. I.

This institution is in charge of a clergyman, aided by three qualified teachers, and is organized to give a cheap classical or commercial education, to the sons of those who desire the advancement of their boys, in either of these departments.

Orphan Asylum. The Sisters of Mercy have opened in a house connected with their Convent, a female orphan asylum, in which there are thirty-five orphans. This institution has already done infinite good.

Cathedral Female Free School. The Sisters of Mercy have charge of this school, in which they teach daily about 300 little girls.

Cathedral Free School for Boys. This school is under the supervision of a clergyman, with a qualified teacher, and assistants. About 250 boys are daily taught in this school.

ST. CATHARINE'S CONVENT,

Hartford, Connecticut.

The Sisters of Mercy, located here a few months since, keep an orphan asylum, and teach daily in their free school about 200 little girls. They have also opened an academy in their house.

Bridgeport. There is here also a free school well attended, and it is to be hoped that schools will, in a little time, be organized in connection with all the congregations in the diocese. If we wish to save to religion and God the rising generation, we will, even at a sacrifice, organize for their education, Catholic schools.

Sunday Schools exist in every congregation in the diocese, but are considered, in the absence of the Catholic day school, but feeble auxiliaries to religious education.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETIES. The Purgatorian Society organized at the Cathedral, is in a most flourishing condition. Its object is continuous prayer for the souls of the faithful departed. It gives much edification, and is eminently religious.

The Scapular and Rosary societies are found in a flourishing condition, in almost all the congregations of the diocese.

INDIAN MISSIONS.

The Menomonee tribe, of which the greater number are converted Catholics, temperate and in an advanced state of civilization, with two excellent schools in their midst, have been permitted by our Central and State Governments to locate themselves during the past autumn in the northern district of the State of Wisconsin, where they now occupy a tract of land running 30 miles east and west, and 20 north and south, so as to embrace the Oconto river on the east, and Wolf's river on the west. The mission and schools placed under the protection of St. Michael, the Archangel, will be near the borders of Lake Showano. The mission will continue to stand under the direction of its pious and indefatigable founder, the Rev. J. Fl. Bonduel, the energetic superintendent of its schools for the last five or six years. May God prosper again this mission in its new quarters, to the full satisfaction of religion and society!

Dr. Barron, who had been consecrated for a mission in Africa, which he was compelled to resign in consequence of continued ill health, has resided for the last two years in the diocese of Savannah, in the hope of being benefitted by the climate, and has labored earnestly and zealously in the cause of religion. He spent a considerable portion of his time at this point, Tallahassee; but at present the small body of Catholics, that reside there, are without any immediate spiritual guide. Several of them are converts.

INSTITUTIONS.

CONVENT OF THE SISTERS OF OUR LADY OF MERCY.

Savannah, Geo.

In this establishment are eleven professed sisters, who observe the rule of St. Vincent of Paul. To it is attached a Boarding and Day School for young ladies, containing about 90 pupils, as also

An Orphan Asylum for girls, which maintains at present 26 female orphans; and

A free day school, which averages about 100 pupils. The good Sisters of this Institution also visit occasionally the sick poor. The Institution has been now in existence for several years, having been originally a branch from the house of the same name in Charleston, which was founded by the late illustrious Rt. Rev. Dr. England. It has already effected a vast deal of good, for which the Diocess is principally indebted to the untiring zeal of the Rev. J. F. O'Neill, sen'r., the Spiritual Director of the Sisters. Sister Mary Vincent Mahoney, Mother Superior.

A day school for boys is attached to the church in Savannah, under the immediate charge of the Sexton of the church. Average number of scholars in attendance averages 100. This School also owes its existence to the Rev. J. F. O'Neill, sen'r.

The Society of Our Lady Help of Christians in Savannah, is managed by a number of the ladies of the congregation of St. John the Baptist, who divide themselves into committees and visit the different districts of the city, those who are in distress, particularly the sick poor, distributing among them their own alms, and the alms of the various subscribers to the Society, which have been placed in their hands for the relief of the indigent and the sick.

Confraternity of the Rosary of B. V. M. in Savannah. The number of members is considerable, and much good is anticipated from the Confraternity. The plan of the "living rosary" is followed.

Confraternity of St. John the Baptist in Savannah, for the suppression and prevention of intemperance, was introduced in its present form on the 29th of August last, the festival of the beheading of St. John the Baptist. The members take the usual pledge of total abstinence, and recite daily one Pater and one Ave, and the short aspiration "Holy Patron, St. John the Baptist, pray for us." The Confraternity numbers already nearly 200 members.

An Orphan Society exists in Savannah, the members of which pay a small sum monthly for the support of the inmates of the Orphan Asylum.

Society of St. Vincent of Paul—The members pay monthly 25 cents towards a fund for the education of candidates for the ministry for the Diocess of Savannah.

Schools of Christian Doctrine, or Sunday Schools, as also day schools are attached to most of the churches in the Diocess. These latter, however, the day schools, are generally speaking, as it were, but in their infancy, and are supported with difficulty. Hopes are entertained that ere long a community of religious ladies will be established in Augusta, for the education of the Catholic female children of that place; and also a school under the charge of some Christian Brothers for the education of the Catholic boys. Efforts are also being made to have a community of religious ladies in St. Augustine.

Beaver Island, St. Leopold's, } La Croix.

Manestie, St. Joseph's, }

For an account of the origin and progress of the Indian mission on Lake Michigan, see Almanac of A. D. 1848, page 160-61.

Pokagon, Cass co., Most Holy and Immaculate Heart of Mary—Rev. Lewis Baroux, S. S. C. This mission numbers about 300 Catholic Indians of the Potawatomi nation. They are regularly attended by their pastor, and have a good school under the direction of two Sisters of the Society of the Holy Cross.

Sault St. Mary's, Chippeway co., St. Mary's—Rev. Jno. B. Menet, S. J. Anse, Kewenaw Bay, Lake Superior. The Most Holy Name of Jesus. Very Rev. Frederick Baraga, Vic. Gen., who also visits the different stations in the copper region. The Indians belonging to this mission are continually advancing in civilization, good religious conduct and industrious habits. They live peaceable and contented, and enjoy already, in this world, the reward of their sobriety and christian-like mode of living. Their families increase and enjoy good health. It is remarkable how healthy these Indians are now. The circumstance deserves to be noticed, that since the ninth day of June, 1849, to the 15th day of August, 1850, (over fourteen months) not a single soul, either man, woman, or child, departed this life.

There is much hope of a considerable increase of this mission.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

In some of the churches, even where mass is celebrated every Sunday, no regular Sunday schools or schools of christian doctrine exist; and in many parishes, where mass is celebrated but once or twice a month, Sunday schools are entirely neglected, which is one cause of the low and declining state of religion in those parishes. In all the churches in the county of Philadelphia, flourishing Sunday schools exist, in which the number of scholars, of both sexes, ranges from 200 to 1,000. In many other counties great attention is paid, both by pastors and teachers, to catechetical instruction; but it is to be regretted that in extensive portions of the diocess great indifference and even total neglect may be attributed to parents in regard to the religious training of their children.

PAROCHIAL DAY SCHOOLS.

The number of Parochial free schools in the whole diocess is 41. They are called free, though the parents of the children who attend are expected, and often required to pay something towards the support of them.

St. John's parish has schools for both sexes, taught in the basement of the church by six female teachers. Number in attendance 340.

St. Peter's parish has two schools held in the basement of the church. The boys' school, which numbers 286 pupils, is taught by English and German male teachers. The girls' school, numbering 270, is taught by the Sisters of Notre Dame.

St. Mary's parish has a school of 250 girls, in Union street, below 4th, taught by the Sisters of Charity. The brothers of the Christian Schools have been engaged to teach the boys' school in the school house near the church. These schools are supported by legacies left for that purpose.

Trinity parish has a school for boys and girls, taught by a German teacher.

St. Joseph's parish has schools for both sexes, each numbering about 150 pupils. The boys' school, kept in the basement of the church, is taught by two brothers of the Society of Jesus, and the girls' school, kept in a house rented for that purpose, by the Sisters of St. Joseph.

St. Philip's parish has schools for both sexes, kept in the basement of the church. The boys' department is taught by two or three female teachers, and the girls by three Sisters of St. Joseph.

St. Augustine's parish had flourishing male and female schools, before the incendiary destruction of 1844. They will be re-opened immediately, a parochial school society having been organized for the purpose in conjunction with the clergy to attend to their management.

St. Patrick's parish has schools for both sexes, in a school house, recently erected in the neighborhood of the church. The number, including both sexes, is 1,000, taught by nine teachers, all females excepting one.

St. Michael's parish has a school, kept in the basement of the church consisting of 60 boys, taught by a male teacher. A large and commodious school house is in progress of erection on a lot near the church.

St. Francis Xavier's parish has a school of 93 children of both sexes, taught by a male teacher in the basement of the church.

The above schools are all in the city of Philadelphia and the immediate districts.

St. Mary's parish, in Lancaster, has a school for both sexes, attended by 50 children.

St. Patrick's parish, Pottsville, has a school for girls, taught by the Sisters of St. Joseph. The number in attendance is 170.

St. Peter's parish, Wilmington, has a school of 120 girls, taught by the Sisters of Charity.

St. Joseph's parish, Brandywine, has schools for both sexes in the basement of the church.

The parish of the church of the Holy Sacrament, in Washington township, has a school of 30 boys, taught by a male teacher.

St. Mary's parish, Pottstown, has a school for both sexes, attended by 30 children.

St. Mark's parish, Bristol, has a school of 30 children taught by a female teacher.

The Assumption parish, Manayunk, has a school for both sexes, conducted by the pastor and a male teacher. The number in attendance is 52. An evening school of 24 pupils is also held.

A Catholic school was opened in Santa Fe, on the 25th of August, and is already flourishing beyond expectations.

Preparations are making to open, in Santa Fe, a female school under the care of the Sisters of Charity. The most generous offers have also been made to the Bishop by Mexicans and Americans, to assist in establishing a Catholic college.

There are in the territory from 40,000 to 50,000 Indians, (infidels,) and several tribes have expressed an ardent desire of being instructed in the Catholic religion, but the number of clergymen is not yet sufficient to attend to these pressing wants.

This summary has been so arranged as to exhibit at one glance the statistics of each diocese and also of each ecclesiastical province. From the figures in this table, and from preceding statements, it follows that there are in the United States 6 archbishops, 26 bishops, 1471 priests, and 1545 churches, distributed among 34 dioceses and 2 apostolic vicariates. One bishop and 25 priests have died; whence it appears that during the past year there was an accession of 111 priests. The figures in the above table, under the head of Catholic population, were obtained from official, and consequently the most reliable sources. If we suppose the Catholic population in the diocese of St. Louis to be 100,000, Boston 260,000, Galveston 30,000, St. Paul's 2500, the total number of Catholics in the United States will be about 2,096,300.

The Supreme Court is held in the city of Washington, and has one session annually, commencing on the first Monday of December.

CIRCUIT COURTS.

The United States are divided into the following nine judicial circuits, in each of which a Circuit Court is held twice every year, for each State within the circuit, by a justice of the Supreme Court, assigned to the circuit, and by the district judge of the State or district in which the court sits:

Circuit.	States.	Presiding Judge.
1.	Maine, N. Hampshire, Mass. and R. Island,	Mr. Justice Curtis.
2.	Vermont, Connecticut, and New York,	" " Nelson.
3.	New Jersey and Pennsylvania,	" " Grier.
4.	Delaware, Maryland, and Virginia,	Mr. Chief Just. Taney.
5.	Alabama, Louisiana, and Kentucky,	Mr. Justice ———
6.	North Carolina, S. Carolina, and Georgia,	" " Wayne.
7.	Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and Michigan,	" " McLean.
8.	Kentucky, Tennessee, and Missouri,	" " Catron.
9.	Mississippi and Arkansas,	" " Daniel.

The States of Florida, Texas, Iowa, Wisconsin and California have not yet been attached to any circuit, but the district courts have the power of circuit courts. There is a local circuit court held in the District of Columbia, by three judges specially appointed for that purpose. The chief justice of that court sits also as district judge of that district.

No printed matter shall be sent at the above rates, unless either without any wrapper, or with one open at the ends or sides, so that the character of the matter may be seen without removing the wrapper; or if any written or printed communication is put on the same after its publication, or upon the cover or wrapper, except the name and address of the person to whom the same is sent; or if any thing else is inclosed in such printed paper. MINT OF THE UNITED STATES.

It is lawful for any person or persons to bring to the Mint gold and silver bullion to be coined; and the bullion so brought is there assayed and coined, as speedily as may be after the receipt thereof, and, if of the standard of the United States, free of expense to the person or persons by whom it has been brought. But the Treasurer of the Mint is not obliged to receive, for the purpose of refining and coining, any deposit of less value than one hundred dollars, nor any bullion so base as to be unsuitable for minting. And there must be retained from every deposit of bullion below the standard, such sum as shall be equivalent to the expense incurred in refining, toughening, and alloying the same; an accurate account of which expense, on every deposit, is kept, and of the sums retained on account of the same, which are accounted for by the Treasurer of the Mint with the Treasurer of the United States.

PUBLIC LANDS.

The public lands belonging to the General Government are situated,— 1st. Within the limits of the United States, as defined by the treaty of 1783, and are embraced by the States of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, and that part of Minnesota east of the Mississippi River, all of which have been formed out of the Northwestern Territory, as conveyed with certain reservations to the United States by New York in 1781, by Virginia in 1784, by Massachusetts in 1785, and by Connecticut in 1786; also the lands within the boundaries of the States of Mississippi and Alabama north of 31° north latitude, as conveyed to the United States by Georgia in 1802. 2d. Within the Territories of Orleans and Louisiana, as acquired from France by the treaty of 1803, including the portion of the States of Alabama and Mississippi south of 31°; the whole of Louisiana, Arkansas, Missouri, Iowa, and that portion of Minnesota west of the Mississippi River; the Indian Territory; the district called Nebraska; the Territory of Oregon, and the region lying between Oregon and Minnesota, north of 42° and south of 49° north latitude. 3d. Within the State of Florida, as obtained from Spain by the treaty of 1819. 4th. In New Mexico and California, as acquired from Mexico by the treaty of 1848.

Within the limits recognized by these treaties and cessions, the public lands covered an estimated area of 1,584,000,000 acres. Exclusive of the lands in Oregon, California, New Mexico, Utah, the Indian and Nebraska Territories, the entire area of the public domain is stated, after a careful examination, to have been 424,103,750 acres. About one fourth of this, up to November 30, 1850, had been sold, and $135,339,092 received therefor. The aggregate outlay of every kind upon these lands to the same date, including cost of purchase, of surveying, and of selling, was $74,957,879, leaving as net profit to the government $60,381,213, or an annual average of nearly a million of dollars for the last fifty years. If there should be added to this, at the rate of $1.25 per acre, the value of the land granted for bounties, schools, internal improvements, &c., it would amount to nearly double the above sum. The average cost per acre to the government of acquiring title, &c., to the lands is 14.41 cents; of survey, 2.07 cents; of selling and managing, 5.32 cents; in all 21.80 cents; while it receives $1.25 per acre, or a net profit on each acre sold of $1.032.

The whole number of warrants for Mexican bounty land claims issued to November 1, 1850, is 80,781, of which 66,618 have been located, and 66,200 have been patented. The whole number of warrants issued under the general bounty-land law of September 28, 1850, up to November 1, 1851, is 54,201. Of these, 3,708 have been located and returned, and 1,950 patented.

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.—The Senate is composed of two members elected by the legislature of each State for the term of six years. Of course the number of Senators is now sixty-two. The Vice-President of the United States is President of the Senate. In his absence, a President pro tempore is chosen by the Senate.

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES is composed of representatives from each State, in the ratio of one to every 70,680 of the population. The present number of members is two hundred and thirty-four; and there are four delegates, one each from Oregon, Minnesota, Utah, and New Mexico, who have a right to speak, but not to vote. The compensation of the members is $8, and that of the Speaker $16 per day during the session, and $8 for every twenty miles' travel in going and returning.

AREA AND POPULATION.—Taking the 31 States together, their area is 1,485,870 square miles, and the average number of their inhabitants is 15.48 to the square mile. The total area of the United States is 3,221,595 square miles, and the average density of population is 7,219 to the square mile. In the last ten years, no less than 1,166,432 square miles have been added to the area of the United States, not including the great lakes upon our northern borders, or the bays that indent our Atlantic and Pacific coasts. The total area of Europe is 3,807,195 square miles.

THE AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTIONS OF THE UNITED STATES.—By the Census report, we learn that the following are the agricultural productions of the United States:—Acres of land improved, 112,042,000; value of farming utensils, $151,820,273; live stock, $552,705,238; wheat, 104,799,230 bushels; Indian corn, 591,586,053 bushels; tobacco, 199,532,494 lbs.; ginned cotton, 2,474,214 bales, 400 lbs. each; wool, 52,422,797 lbs.; wine, 141,295 gallons; butter, 312,202,286 lbs.; cheese, 103,184,585 lbs.; hay, 13,605,384 tons; hemp, dew-rotted, 62,182 tons; hemp, water-rotted, 13,059 tons; flax-seed, 567,749 bushels; maple sugar, 32,759,263 lbs.; cane sugar, 318,467 hhds.; home-made manufactures, $27,525,545.

NEWSPAPERS AND PERIODICALS.—According to the census returns, the whole number of newspapers and periodicals in the United States, on the 1st of June, 1850, amounted to 2,800. Of these, 2,496 were fully returned, 234 had all the facts excepting the circulation given, and 72 are estimated for California, the Territories, and for those that may have been omitted by the Assistant Marshal. From calculations made on the statistics returned, and estimated circulations where they have been omitted, it appears that the aggregate circulation of those 2,800 papers and periodicals is about 5,000,000, and that the entire number of copies printed annually in the United States amounts to 422,600,000. 424 papers are issued in the New England States, 876 in the Middle States, 716 in the Southern States, and 784 in the Western States. Average circulation of papers in the United States, 1,785. There is one publication for every 7,161 free inhabitants in the United States and Territories.

MYLIUS' HISTORY OF ENGLAND.

For the use of Catholic Colleges and Schools. An abridged History of England, for the use of Schools, to which is added, an Abstract of the Constitution, and a Geographical Treatise, according to the Roman, Saxon and Modern Divisions, brought down to the end of the reign of George IV. By W. F. Mylius. Neatly bound in sheep, . Price 63

The plan of this history is different from most of the histories now in use. It is divided into nine books, each of which is subdivided into chapters, in which the military history, the ecclesiastical history, the laws and government, and the manners and customs are given separately. In the end of the work is a series of questions adapted to the text.

Extract of a letter from the late Rt. Rev. Dr. Milner to the author :

“ Sir,—From a slight inspection of your history, my conviction is, that it is a valuable acquisition to our Catholic Seminaries, of both sexes ; as such, I shall not fail to recommend it to them and their superiors, as far as my influence extends.”

LOVE OF CHRIST.

Love of our Lord Jesus Christ reduced to practice. By St. Alphonsus Liguori. Translated into English by the Rt. Rev. W. Walsh, Bishop of Halifax. "If any one will not love our Lord Jesus Christ, let him be accursed."—St. Paul.
New edition 18mo. cloth, Price 37

WAY OF SALVATION.

The Way of Salvation, in Meditations for every day in the year. Translated from the Italian of St. Alphonsus Liguori, by the Rev. James Jones. 24mo. cloth, . . Price 37

CONTENTS.

- PART I. Meditations suitable for all times of the year.
PART II. Meditations for particular times and days of the year.
Novena for Christmas.
Novena on the Litany of Loretto.
Fifteen meditations on the Passion of Jesus Christ, for the last fifteen days of Lent.
Three Meditations on Heaven for Easter.
Novena of the Holy Ghost.
Eight meditations for the Octave of Corpus Christi.
PART III. Rules of a Christian life.
Darts of fire.

No subtilty of thought, nor loftiness of words, will be found in these meditations; but the greatest simplicity and the plainest forms of expression. Nothing in them will perplex the understanding, but all will powerfully appeal to the heart: for while they are remarkable for the beautiful simplicity of style so peculiar to the Beatified Author, they are not less characterized by profound piety, ardent love of God, and tender devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mother of God. They are each divided into three points; each point generally includes acts of the love of God, of contrition for sin, and of supplication for final perseverance; and every last point concludes with a short prayer to the ever Blessed Mary.

HOURS OF THE PASSION.

Hours of the Passion: or Pathetic Reflections on the Sufferings and Death of our Blessed Redeemer. By St. Alphonsus Liguori. Translated into English by the Rt. Rev. W. Walsh, Bishop of Halifax;—with a sketch of the Life of St. Alphonsus Liguori. “Greater love than this no man hath, that a man lay down his life for his friends.”—John xv. 13. New edition. 18mo. cloth, Price 37

VISITS TO THE MOST HOLY SACRAMENT.

Visits to the Most Holy Sacrament and to the Blessed Virgin, for every day in the month. Aspirations of love to Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. Rules for frequent communion, with a defence of the same. Meditations for every day in the week, and a Novena for All Souls’ Day. Translated from the Italian of St. Alphonsus Liguori, by a Catholic Clergyman. To which is added, a method of devoutly hearing Mass, by Blessed Leonard a Porto Maurizio. 24mo. cloth, Price 37

“The additions to this edition are very important; they occupy some sixty pages of additional space, and they present the translation perfect, from the original Italian, instead of being, as it was, defective, from the French copies. If there had been no more than the simple change of You to Thou, in addressing the Creator, or Redeemer, or the Blessed Virgin, it would have been a great improvement; but here is all that St. Alphonsus wrote on the advantages of, and rules for, frequent communion, with a defence of his doctrine on this subject, and a Novena for All Souls’ Day. The saintly little book is a well-spring of pure devotion, and they are blest who assist in pouring out its waters.”—The Tablet.

The best proof of a reading people, is the publication of works among them; how gratifying then to witness, not only the appearance of so many new works from our various publishers, but the nature of the works now so frequently offered to our attention. We have just received the work whose title we place above, from Mr. F. Lucas, Jr. It is a republication, the first, we believe, on this side of the Atlantic, of a most valuable volume, from the pen of the Rev. Joseph Reeve, author of the History of the Christian Church, and also compiler of the History of the Bible. The name of the author, would, in itself, be an ample recommendation, but the intrinsic value of the work itself, should recommend it to many purchasers. In the first part, the various attributes of the Deity are explained and practically illustrated. The history and miracles of Jesus Christ are recorded in the second part, in the exposition of the principal festivals instituted in his honor, and the institution of the Eucharistic sacrifice is established and explained. The volume is filled with practical knowledge, and we wish it were in the hands of every body. It is printed on fine paper and clear type.—Cath. Herald.

COCHIN ON THE MASS.

Instructions on the Prayers and Ceremonies of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Translated from the French of M. Cochin, and arranged for each Sunday throughout the year, by W. Jos. Walter, late of St. Edmund's College. In one volume. 12mo. cloth, Price 75

CONTENTS.

The Preparation.
The Instruction.
The Oblation.
The Canon.

The Consecration.
The Preparation for Communion.
The Communion.
The Thanksgiving.

The object of the author in these instructions, has been to deduce such consequences as may come home more nearly to our own bosoms, such as are most conducive to edification, and best calculated to give animation to faith, and fresh fervor to devotion. He has been particularly solicitous to avoid that mystic character, which, in its attempt to give a mysterious construction to every trivial circumstance, has involved the whole subject in obscurity. His instructions on the various responses and minor prayers used by the church, which are apt to be hastily passed over, and by the frequency of their repetition, become a mere succession of unmeaning words, will be found particularly happy. Our Protestant brethren, who have been accustomed from their infancy to hear the very word Mass pronounced, with indistinct feelings of horror and aversion, should read this book in the same spirit of candor in which it was written.

CATECHISM OF THE COUNCIL OF TRENT.

Published by command of Pope Pius V. Translated by Rev.

J. Donovan, Professor, &c. Royal College, Maynooth.—

In one volume, 8vo. cloth, Price $1 00

THE ROMAN CATECHISM, of which this is an English translation, was composed by decree of the Council of Trent; and the same venerable authority commands all Bishops “to take care that it be faithfully translated into the vernacular language, and expounded to the people by all pastors.”

To meet the mischievous activity of the Reformers and to rear the edifice of Christian knowledge on its only secure and solid basis, the instruction of its authorized teachers; to afford the faithful a fixed standard of Christian belief, and to the Pastor a prescribed form of religious instruction; to supply a pure and perennial fountain of living waters to refresh and invigorate at once the Pastor and the flock, were amongst the important objects contemplated by the Fathers of Trent in the publication and translation of the Roman Catechism.

The world has been inundated with pernicious tracts, teeming with vituperative misrepresentations of the dogmas of the Catholic faith, and loaded with unmeasured invective against the principles of Catholic morality, by the action of the Fathers of Trent, and we are now furnished with an antidote eminently calculated to neutralize the poison, which has been so industriously diffused, to abate prejudice, instruct ignorance, promote piety, and confirm belief, in a work containing a comprehensive summary of the dogmas of the Catholic faith, and a no less comprehensive epitome of the principles of Catholic morality.

To another, and, happily, an increasing class of the community, the present volume cannot fail to prove a useful acquisition—to those who, anxious only for truth, desire to know the real principles of Catholics could they arrive at a knowledge of them through the medium of a compendious and authoritative exposition.

To these important ends we cannot, perhaps, contribute more effectually, than by placing within the reach of all, a Work explanatory of Catholic doctrine, and universally acknowledged authority in the Catholic Church.

The Cheapest School Book Published in the United States!

REEVE'S BIBLE HISTORY.

History of the Old and New Testament, interspersed with Moral and Instructive Reflections chiefly taken from the Holy Fathers, from the French by J. Reeve, in sheep binding, Price reduced to 50c.

In order to increase still further the immense circulation of this popular and standard School Book, the publisher has determined to reduce the retail price of it to the very low rate of fifty cents, from which the usual discount will be made to the trade. Clergymen, religious institutions and colleges will be allowed a discount when ordering in large quantities.

This reduction renders the book one of the cheapest school books now in use, as it contains 476 pages of Octavo, neatly bound in sheep, and it is only with the hope of extending its usefulness that the reduction of price is now made.

PISE'S CHURCH HISTORY.

A History of the Church, from its establishment to the Reformation. By the Rev. C. C. Pise, A. M.

5 vols. 12mo. cloth, Price 3 50

The Rev. Author places the prominent and leading facts in such order as to give to general readers a sufficient knowledge of the occurrences regarding religion; this is done in a very clear, simple and pleasing style: there is no attempt at decoration, which would be altogether out of place in a historical work; perspicuity and orderly method are the essential characteristics of the historian—and the author of this work appears to us to have fully attained it. As far as we could judge, by some paragraphs which we have read, the style is uniformly and pleasingly sustained. The Index is accurately and judiciously compiled; so that the references are simple and abundant. It is a work which ought to be generally read.—

MERCY OF GOD.

Reflections on the Confidence in the Mercy of God. By the Right Rev. J. J. Languet, Bishop of Soissons.

18mo. cloth, Price 38

In common enterprises, confidence is a part of the means which is employed in order to succeed; at least it animates and gives them a new vigor: fearful troops are half conquered; whilst the confidence of those soldiers that go to battle, redoubles their ardor and fortifies their courage. It is not in vain that it is written, "By hope we are saved."

A supplement containing all the new Masses for the United States, including the Mass of the Immaculate Conception, has just been added to this edition, which renders it the best and most complete of its size now to be had.

SPIRITUAL CONSOLATION.

Or, a Treatise on Interior Peace. Translated from the French of Pere Lombez. Interspersed with various instructions necessary for promoting the practice of solid piety. By the Authoress of the Ursuline Manual.

Bound in sheep, Price 75

We really rejoiced on receiving from the publisher this most useful and practically interesting volume. Often did we sigh after the hope of seeing it, as we now do, forming a volume of our national re-publications; until lately, we were not aware of a second copy of the European translation having been in the country. Many manuscripts were formed from the original. We do not know a more pleasingly useful book than Pere Lombez's Treatise. It is divided into four parts. In the first, the beauty and excellence of interior peace is exhibited. In the second, we are guarded against the obstacles which destroy or disturb it. In the third, the means are pointed out for its attainment and preservation; and the fourth is a practical epitome of those means and their consequences. We could wish a copy in the hands of all those who believe the possession of interior peace is incompatible with the active duties of life.—Cath. Herald.

This work of the great Bossuet—perhaps the most useful of all his writings, and which he composed for the use of a few Protestants—was at first circulated privately; but at the earnest solicitation of some friends, the Prelate reluctantly gave his consent to make it public. The first edition was received with such avidity, and produced such happy effects upon the minds of many Protestants, that in a short time, it passed through several editions in almost every European language.

The value of this work is much enhanced by the copious notes of Fletcher, which render it more clear and perspicuous.

FLETCHER'S CONTROVERSY.

The Spirit of Religious Controversy. By the Rev. John Fletcher, D. D. 18mo. cloth, Price 38

This is one of the best works of this great author, written with a view to arm the good sense of the Catholic, against some of the recent arguments of error; to increase the liberality or diminish the intolerance of the Protestant; and to cast a ray of light athwart the dark atmosphere of prejudice, which the ignorance and misconception of our adversaries have formed around them.

SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR

Of Devout and Religious Souls. From the Writings of St. Francis Sales. Bound in cloth, Price 75

The name of the truly great St. Francis gave a worth and character to this work, which no language of ours can enhance. Each chapter is devoted to the elucidation of some Christian virtue, or to the enforcement of some Christian duty. It is one of those peculiarly excellent books, of which we can never tire. It is not to buy it, read it, and then put it on the shelf. Over and over again it may be perused, and then re-perused, and always with profit and delight. A chapter or two might be studied, and made the subject of meditation for every day of life—and to those who have no director of a similar kind, we recommend that they obtain this without delay.

DEVOUT LIFE.

Introduction to a Devout Life: from the French of St. Francis Sales, Bishop and Prince of Geneva. To which is prefixed an abstract of his life.

24mo. neatly bound in cloth, Price 75

The Devout Life is a work for which our entire stock of devotional reading will not supply any adequate substitute. There is not in the whole circle of ascetic theology, a single volume so admirably calculated for the class to which it is addressed—for persons engaged in the world.

Each number contains one or more stories, embellished with a plate.

HOME OF THE LOST CHILD.

One volume. 18mo. cloth, Price 38

The object of this little Tale, written by one of the Religious of the "Order of our Lady of Charity of the Good Shepherd," is to make known the true nature of the Order and the workings of the Asylums under their care. It is founded on fact, and records in a most interesting way a singular instance of God's mercy.

MRS. HERBERT.

Mrs. Herbert and the Villagers; or Familiar Conversations on the Principal Duties of Christianity.

2 vols. 18mo. cloth, Price 1 50

Religion is the only true foundation of morality.—BURKE.

The enemies of the Catholic creed have insidiously poured forth, in religious tales, the most unfounded calumnies against their doctrines and practice. It is right to learn a lesson from their misdirected zeal, to wrest from their hands the arms by which they impugn the truth, and to combat them with their own weapons. It was in this spirit that the dialogues of Mrs. Herbert were written for the use of the poor, by a lady, whose zeal and judgment cannot be too much admired, and who has sought and found, in the holy seclusion of a conventual life, those consolations of religion which she so beautifully describes in this interesting work.

FATHER ROWLAND.

A North American Tale. By Rev. C. C. Pise, D. D.

18mo. cloth, gilt back, Price 38

This little tale combines at once much theological research, a thorough knowledge of the world, an acquaintance with men, and an ability of description almost approaching to poesy.

It strikes us that it was written in answer to "Father Clement," although the name of that abusive little romance is not once mentioned—nor are the misrepresentations with which it abounds, so much as even alluded to.—Metropolitan.

THE INDIAN COTTAGE.

An Unitarian Story. By Rev. C. C. Pise, D. D.

18mo. cloth, Price 38

The above work, by the author of Father Rowland, was written in vindication of a dogma, which is not only questioned, but systematically attacked, by a denomination who style themselves "Christians." This too, is the most vital dogma of Christianity; for, if the founder of the new covenant was a mere man, the system which he established is not as sublime as that of the old. The reality is not more substantial than the figure.

The prophecies have not been fulfilled.—Christ is no greater than the prophets, less than Moses.—This will be made manifest, it is thought, to any who will peruse this little work with attention, and without prejudice.

MODEL FOR YOUNG MEN.

A Model for Young Men, displayed in the edifying Life of Claude Le Peletier De Sousi. Translated by the Rev. Edward Peach.

18mo. cloth, Price 37

This tribute of anxious solicitude, contains the history of a young man who exhibited a display of the most heroic, most consummate virtues during that period of life which is the most replete with dangers, and the least calculated to resist them. It will be interesting to inquire, by what means this young man arose superior to the weakness of his age:—the perusal will inform us that it was by an unaffected and sincere piety. Piety taught him to reflect, at leisure, upon the mercy and love of God: reflection exercised his understanding; and exercise perfected that power in youth, which, in general, is attained only in manhood.

PALESTINE.

Palestine, or the Holy Land: selected from the works of F.

A. D. Chateaubriand, by the Rev. James Fulton.

18mo. 2 vols. bound in one—cloth, gilt back, Price 50

Although this work is principally intended for the instruction of youth, yet as the translator of Chateaubriand has justly observed, the scholar and the man of science can accompany the author through some of the most renowned regions of antiquity; while the Christian will follow him to the scenes hallowed by the presence and miracles of the Divine Founder of Religion; and the general reader will be gratified with the information, the adventures, and the reflections with which it is interspersed.

PIETY EXEMPLIFIED:

With appropriate illustrations, from historical, and other sources; interspersed with familiar reflections, adapted to the capacity of youth. By the Rev. B. Rayment.

Two vols. bound in one, cloth, gilt back, Price 75

The examples that are here selected, are founded on facts taken from real life. The authorities are not all given, for obvious reasons that require no apology: whilst those that are given, may be safely depended upon.

Neither time nor labor has been spared to elucidate the truth. With regard to the language, sentiments, incidents, and occasional applications, the author has had in view the advantage of his young readers, by endeavouring to give the most lively interest in his power to the performance.

He has drawn stores from every mine within his reach: his object has been to breathe into the whole work an animating spirit of virtue, a high sense of honour, probity, and philanthropy: these are the powers he has pressed into his service, purposely to refine, and exalt the sentiments of the heart; to improve, and inform the understanding; and to call into activity the faculty of invention and research—the first index of latent genius—the first opening of every future exertion.

LIFE OF MORE.

Life and Times of Sir Thomas More. Illustrated from his own writings, and from contemporary documents. By W. Joseph Walter, late of St. Edmund's College; with a portrait and autograph of More.

18mo. cloth, gilt back, Price 75

Sir Thomas More is one of the most prominent names in the English Catholic annals. This remarkable man claims attention under all the varied relations of the good father, the enlightened statesman, the elegant historian, and the no contemptible champion in the field of controversy.

Desirous, of re-producing a faithful picture of the time, the author has taken pleasure in weaving into his narrative the many simple traits of domestic manners with which the pages of More's family biographers abound.

BEAUTIES OF MORE.

Beauties of Sir Thomas More: a Selection from his Works, as well in prose as in verse, a sequel to the "Life and Times of More." By W. J. Walter.

CONTENTS.

Utopia—a Political Romance.	History of King Richard III.
Apology.	Controversial Writings.
Devotional Pieces.	Letters.
Apothegms. Thoughts.	Poetry.

Without some acquaintance with the writings of the worthy Chancellor, no adequate idea can be formed of his genius and character. As he now stands exhibited to the notice of posterity, he was selected by the English Catholics of his day as the bulwark of their cause. Such a choice is not discreditable to their judgment.

SEVEN VIRTUES.

Stories of the Seven Virtues. By Agnes M. Stewart.

One volume. 18mo. neatly bound in cloth, Price 33

This is a series of moral and interesting tales, told with an elegant simplicity—each illustrating the triumph of one of the seven virtues. The stories are well conceived, and the moral ever salutary and impressive. To our young friends we would recommend this little volume with an assurance that its perusal will be attended with more practical good than if they had waded through a dozen of the light and trashy novels of the day. The gifted authoress has prepared a work for which her young friends ought to be truly grateful.—Truth Teller.

The accomplished writer of these pious and moral narratives has ably mingled in them the useful with the pleasing. They are designed for the instruction of young persons, on the practical subjects of humility, liberality, chastity, meekness, temperance, brotherly-love and diligence, and contain an illustration of these virtues which will be read with equal pleasure and profit.—Cath. Mirror.

TRIUMPH OF RELIGION;

Or, a Choice Selection of Edifying Narratives, compiled from various authors, by the Rev. James Fitton.

18mo. cloth, gilt back, Price 38

Example is every thing in the formation of character; and there is no more fitting book to place in the hands of youth, whose principles are not firmly fixed, than this one, which illustrates virtue by examples drawn from history. The purity of the morals depends upon the bias too often given by vicious books when the mind is most easily impressed.

PARABLES.

Parables of P. Bonaventure Girardeau, S. J. author of L'Evangile Médité.

18mo. cloth, Price 38

This method of instruction is sanctioned by the practice and authority of our Divine Redeemer himself, who conveyed his life-giving doctrine to the people under the guise of similitudes and parables. It is a mode of instruction peculiarly adapted to children.

As a guarantee of its being worthy in every respect the attention of the Catholic community, the publishers respectfully submit the following distinguished testimonials and approbations:

I cheerfully recommend to the patronage of the Catholic community the Catechism of Perseverance, translated from the "Petit Catechisme de Perseverance," of the Abbé Gaume, as a work well calculated to impart solid, historical, liturgical, moral and doctrinal instruction in an agreeable form, and as being particularly well suited for the purpose of higher religious instruction in Catholic Schools and Academies.

† MARTIN J., Bishop of Louisville.

JUST PUBLISHED

THE SIXTH EDITION OF THE CHEAPEST AND MOST IMPORTANT

CATHOLIC PRAYER BOOK,

EVER PUBLISHED IN THE UNITED STATES, ENTITLED

THE SPIRIT OF PRAYER,

A NEW MANUAL OF CATHOLIC DEVOTION. By a member of the Ursuline Community, Cork. Revised, improved, and greatly enlarged by the addition of several Prayers in general use in this country, not to be found in the Irish editions. By a Catholic Priest of this city. The whole approved of by the Right Rev. Bishop of Philadelphia. The following extract from the Preface to the Irish edition, will give some faint idea of the excellence of this book:

The "URSULINE MANUAL" having been compiled principally for young persons, the present work has been carefully arranged, in order to supply the increasing spiritual necessities of adults. And as their progress in virtue must be considerably promoted by frequently and fervently approaching the Sacraments of Penance and the Holy Eucharist, especial attention has been given to every thing relative to these two sources of heavenly light and strength. Prayers suitable to all states and conditions have been appended, so as to render this work a complete Manual of Christian Piety, whence all who desire to love God, and to live for him alone, may derive aid and instruction. * * Hoping that this work, the fruit of much care and consideration, may promote the greater glory of God, and realize all the pious intentions of its author, we commit it to the favor of the public, bespeaking for it some of that decided partiality and indulgence, hitherto so liberally extended to its prototype, "The Ursuline Manual." The work is comprised in a neat 18mo. volume, of between six and seven hundred pages, stereotyped from new, large, and clear type, cast expressly for this work, and illustrated with beautiful, fine, new engravings, by an eminent artist; it is printed on clear, white, fine paper, and bound in the most substantial styles, and sold at the following extraordinary low prices, viz:

The holiness of Christian marriage is too little known by the greater part of those who contract this religious engagement; the duties it imposes both as spouses and as parents are still less generally appreciated. Hence the disturbance of domestic peace, the bad education of children and the violation of the Sacrament. Those that are already engaged in the holy state of matrimony, and those about entering into it, will derive great benefit from a careful perusal of this little volume.

Rev. and Rev. the Clergy and Laity shall induce us to continue the publication of some of the most rare works at prices which shall be within the reach of all.

New and Elegantly Illustrated Work.

DE LIGNY'S LIFE OF CHRIST AND HIS APOSTLES.

THE HISTORY OF THE LIFE OF OUR LORD AND SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST, from his Incarnation until his Ascension. To which is added, The History of the Acts of the Apostles, translated from the French of Father De Ligny, by MRS. J. SADLIER. With the approbation of the Most Rev. John Hughes, D. D., Archbishop of New York.

This is decidedly the cheapest and best Catholic Life of Christ and his Apostles, that has yet been given to the public. It has already been translated into the Spanish and Italian languages; and in Paris, one publisher sold eight thousand copies in one year. We feel confident that few Catholic families in this country will be without a copy, as we intend to place it within the reach of all, by fixing the price so low that all can afford to purchase it.

Parties desirous of obtaining this work, will be careful that no other Life of Christ is taken in its stead, as it is well known that agents of Protestant publishers are actively engaged in circulating others. We would again remind Catholics that this Translation from the French of the learned Father De Ligny, is the Only Complete Catholic Life of Christ and his Apostles, yet published in our language.

TERMS.—The work is printed from large clear type, on superfine heavy paper, in parts of sixty-four pages, with a fine Steel Engraving in each number, at the very low price of 25 cents.

Our friends will bear in mind that we give 64 pages in each number, whereas those published by Protestants only contain Thirty-two,—so that we give a Superior Work to any published, and at one half the price.

With the Approbation of the Most Rev. John Hughes, D.D., Archbishop of New York.

Sadliers'
ILLUSTRATED CATHOLIC FAMILY
BIBLE,

From the Versions of the Douay and Rheims: Translated from the Latin Vulgate, and diligently compared with the Hebrew, Greek, and other editions in various languages.

The Old Testament was first published by the English college at Douay, A. D., 1609; and the New Testament by the English college at Rheims, A. D., 1582. The paper is excellent, the type is large and beautiful, and it is the only new copy of the sacred volume published in this country. The proof sheets of this work have been read several times with the greatest care, and we are happy to inform those interested, that a single error has not been detected, either by the Rev. clergy or editors who have examined the work. It is not necessary to enter into detail; suffice it to say, that this edition has the Table of References, Annotations, Historical and Chronological Indexes of the Old and New Testament, Table of Controversial References, comprising the scriptural texts applicable to all the principal controverted points, Table of Epistles and Gospels for all the Sundays and holydays throughout the year, and all the other tables usually contained in the sacred volume. The ILLUSTRATIONS, SEVENTEEN in number, several of which have been executed in London, are superior to any thing of the kind got up in this country. It has four Family Records, executed expressly for this work; and as regards the "getting up" of the work, it cannot be surpassed. In order to make this edition more valuable, it has appended to it Ward's Errata, revised and corrected from the last London edition, to which are added the celebrated Preface by the Rev. Doctor Lingard, in answer to Ryan's Analysis; and a Vindication by the Right Rev. Dr. Milner, in answer to Grier's Reply. This is very valuable to Protestants as well as Catholics, and to all those who wish carefully to examine and compare the Catholic and Protestant editions of the Bible.

The work is put up in Parts of FORTY-EIGHT pages, with a new and fine Steel Engraving, at the extremely low price of Twenty-five cents each.

The Bible will be completed in TWENTY-TWO PARTS, and "Ward's Errata" in two, making the cost of the Bible and Errata, only SIX DOLLARS.

 Beware of Bibles published by Protestants, without the approbation of the Archbishop of New York.

This is the only COMPLETE LIFE OF CHRIST AND HIS APOSTLES published in the English language. The Catholic Press have spoken of the work in the most favourable manner.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

“We cordially congratulate the Catholics of the United States on the appearance of a work at once so important and interesting as Father De Ligny's Life of Christ. It is already widely known and appreciated on the continent of Europe, where it has long been prized as one of the most useful of devotional works. Mrs. Sadlier, to whom the Catholics of the United States are already much indebted for her valuable contributions to our Catholic literature, has rendered Father De Ligny's work into our tongue with singular felicity, and a nice regard to the original text. The work is superbly printed, and appears in parts, at the very low price of twenty-five cents per number. The steel engravings are done in the best style of the art, and are after designs by Rubens, Vandyke, De Caisne, Scheffer, and other eminent masters of the old school. We know no Catholic publication of more general utility, and really so cheap. It has already attained a wide circulation in Europe, and we doubt not but that it will be soon found in every Catholic home in the new world."—American Celt.

EXTRACT FROM THE AUTHOR'S PREFACE.

"I respectfully lay this humble volume at the feet of the Venerable Prelates and Clergy of the United States, not as worthy of their patronage, or even of their notice, but as a mark of filial reverence and submission, and of profound and lively gratitude for their kind encouragement, and generous and uniform support of my humble labours in the cause of Catholic truth.

"I would also inscribe it to my Protestant countrymen. They will find in it many reasons why I have ceased to be a Protestant, but none I hope, for believing that I have lost any of my former interest in them, or that their welfare here or hereafter is less dear to me than ever it was. My sympathies with my fellow-men, which, perhaps, are livelier and deeper than some suppose, have been quickened and expanded, not deadened and contracted, by my conversion to Catholicity. I have said nothing in the following pages in wrath; I have spoken only in love.

"Placing this volume, though all unworthy, with devout gratitude and tender love, under the protection of our Blessed Lady, as I do myself and all my interests, I send it forth to the public, hoping that it may contain a fit word fitly spoken for some earnest mind struggling to emancipate itself from error, and to burst into 'the glorious liberty of the children of God.'

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

“ We know not the author of this new translation of the Imitation, but its merits cannot be doubted, since it has obtained the sanction of the highest authority, not only in ecclesiastical matters, but in scholarship and taste—Cardinal Wiseman.”—Dublin Review.

“ The Sadliers have brought out an edition of Thomas à Kempis' ‘Imitation of Christ,’ which deserves special commendation for the beauty of typography, paper, and binding. We like it better than any English edition of this work we have seen. Let all who have not this text-book of piety and meditation obtain a copy.”—New York Freeman's Journal.

“ This is the finest edition of the ‘Following of Christ’ ever printed on this side of the Atlantic. Every Catholic, whether old or young, should have a copy of this treasure of a book.”—Montreal True Witness.

“ A beautiful copy of the well-known devotional work of Thomas à Kempis, which has so long been regarded with favour by the whole Christian world. This edition is one of the finest specimens of American typography and paper, particularly in a religious work, which we have ever seen.”—Norton's Literary Gazette.

PREFACE.

“THE SAINTS OF THE DESERT!” what a subject to be brought before the minds of this worldly-wise and self-worshipping generation!—how can men and women who live but to indulge their tastes, and fancies, and gratify their passions, understand or appreciate the antiquated custom of crucifying the flesh, and macerating the body by vigils and fasts, and giving up all the fascinations of this world to devote the whole being, heart and soul, to God from whom it came?—“And then it is only the Catholics who practise these things, or are at all influenced by such notions. It is only the Church of Rome that inculcates such unnatural doctrines, and teaches people to forget themselves and be as though they were not." Very true, and it is only for Catholics that these pages are expected to have any interest. We have no idea of penetrating the depths of the burning deserts, and entering the cavern or cell where the solitary abides in uninterrupted commune with his God, to lay bare the beautiful recesses—the calm, untroubled depths of his super-human soul—merely to expose them to the derision of the unbeliever. The saints of the desert—the religious of the cloisters—all the monastic orders, whether active or contemplative, are the pride and glory of the Church—they are her richest treasures—her choser children, who sit ever at her feet drinking in her divine precepts and literally putting them in practice; they are the blooming wreaths wherewith she crowns her beloved Spouse, because they are His faithful imitators, and her docile pupils. It is true—very true—that the children of this world who are wiser in their generation than the children of light have little or nothing in common with these saintly personages, and that in their eyes our Anthonys, our Anselms, our Teresas, nay, even our Jeromes, our Gregorys, and our Basils bear but a sorry figure—nay, the divine Precursor himself—the first of our solitaries—must seem little better than a fool, because he practised, to the very letter, this spirit of self-denial which the world cannot understand, but which the Church of God has ever inculcated, and still does inculcate.

This work of Dr. Challoner's has long been familiar to the Catholic public, and it is a very fair collection of the EMINENT SAINTS OF THE DESERT; but on looking over it recently, prior to its re-publication, it struck me that there were a few important omissions. I looked in vain for the lives of St. Jerome—St. Gregory Nazianzen, or his illustrious friend, St. Basil the Great, and knowing that some portion of the lives of each of those great saints were spent in solitude, I thought it would be an acceptable addition to the work to give the monastic lives of those three illustrious doctors, who have rendered and do still render such invaluable service to the Church. This portion of their lives I found in a French work entitled Vies des Pères du Desert, and it is with much pleasure that I now give their rightful place to these three great Fathers of the Oriental Church. As for the style of the translation I shall say nothing, for I had only to make the best of a bad bargain, as there was no style at all in the original. However, in a work of this kind, which is chiefly read by pious Christians, I have not much to dread from criticism, and with that conviction I proceeded in my task, being more anxious to do honour to the sainted memory of these great men—who may be duly called "pillars of the Church"—than to produce a finished piece of composition.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

“This beautiful volume—beautiful in its subject, style, and typography—is No. 4 of ‘Sadlier’s Fireside Library.’ It is the life of our Blessed Lady, as related in a dialogue and narrative carefully composed by the author, upon the data furnished by the Scriptures and Tradition. At first sight, we were disposed to doubt the propriety of thus dealing with a sacred subject. But on a careful and delighted reading of the book, we found so reverend a tone pervading it all that, judging by its effects on our own mind, we do not hesitate to pronounce it a triumph of pious art. It is a book excellently adapted for Christmas presents to ladies; and while such a book can be had, we trust no Christian man will prefer to present his female friends the usual worthless and common trash, called ‘Albums,’ ‘Gifts,’ and ‘Keepsakes.’”—American Celt.

“We have to thank the Messrs. Sadlier for a copy of this beautiful little work, beautiful in its touching simplicity, and in the tender piety glowing on every page. It is the re-print of an English publication, and we hail its appearance in America with pleasure, believing that it is calculated to increase our love and our veneration for the Second Eve—the sweet Lily of Israel—the Mystical Rose of the New Law. Here we have laid open before us the hidden life of the Holy Family, the portraits being traced with consummate skill and intimate acquaintance with the manners and customs of the Hebrew people. Here we see how our Divine Redeemer, his blessed mother, and the venerable St. Joseph, thought and spoke and acted, in the daily routine of this mortal life, and it is quite impossible for any one to read even one chapter without feeling his heart softened and refined. We have great pleasure in recommending the ‘Lily of Israel’ to our readers, and we are quite sure that every Catholic who reads it will endorse our recommendation.”—Montreal True Witness.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

" 'Rome and the Abbey,' by the author of 'Geraldine.' Sadliers have just published this story; get it and read it—of course you will."—New York Freeman's Journal.

" 'Rome and the Abbey' is the title of a new work by the authoress of 'Geraldine,' a tale which has enjoyed a very wide circulation in England and in the United States. We have not had time to read it, but, in turning over the leaves, we recognize the names of our old acquaintances in 'Geraldine,' from which we conclude that this is a continuation of that justly popular tale. The publishers are the Messrs. Sadlier of New York, who have issued it in the form of a well-bound, well-printed, and very creditable volume of something over 400 pages. We notice with pleasure the great improvement in the mechanical execution of Catholic publications within the last few years."—Shepherd of the Valley.

THE HOLY BIBLE,

From the Versions of Douay and Rheims, translated from the Latin Vulgate, and diligently compared with the Hebrew, Greek, and other editions in various languages.

The Old Testament was first published by the English college at Douay, A. D. 1609; and the New Testament by the English college at Rheims, A. D. 1582. The paper is excellent, the type is large and beautiful, and it is the only new copy of the sacred volume published in this country. The proof sheets of this work have been read several times with the greatest care, and we are happy to inform those interested that a single error has not been detected, either by the Rev. clergy or editors who have examined the work. It is not necessary to enter into detail; suffice it to say, that this edition has the Table of References, Annotations, Historical and Chronological Indexes of the Old and New Testament, Table of Controversial References, comprising the scriptural texts applicable to all the principal controverted points, Table of Epistles and Gospels for all the Sundays and holydays throughout the year, and all the other tables usually contained in the sacred volume. The ILLUSTRATIONS, seventeen in number, several of which have been executed in London, are superior to any thing of the kind executed in this country. It has four Family Records, ex-executed expressly for this work; and as regards the "getting up" of the work, it cannot be surpassed. In order to make this edition more valuable, it has appended to it Ward's Errata, revised and corrected from the last London Edition, to which are added the celebrated Preface by the Rev. Doctor Lingard, in answer to Ryan's Analysis; and a Vindication by the Right Rev. Dr. Milner in answer to Grier's Reply. This is very valuable to Protestants as well as Catholics, and to all those who wish carefully to examine and compare the Catholic and Protestant editions of the Bible.

SADLIERS' EXTRAORDINARY CHEAP EDITION OF THE HOLY BIBLE.

The great demand for the Douay Bible amongst the Catholics of the United States and Canada, has induced the publishers to issue this edition, which for CHEAPNESS and DURABILITY cannot be equalled. It contains 4 Steel Engravings, Family Records, with Historical and Chronological Tables, &c. It also possesses these two great advantages over all other Bibles published in the United States: first, that the print is considerably larger, and secondly, that the binding is more durable. Published with the approbation of the Most Rev. Archbishop Hughes.

Pope and Maguire's Discussion.

Perhaps no discussion ever excited so much attention as this. Rev. Mr. Pope was an itinerant controversialist, who went about challenging the priests to come forth and defend the doctrines of their Church,—the Rev. Mr. Maguire accepted the challenge. Up to that time his name was scarcely known beyond the precincts of his parish, (which was situated in the mountains of Leitrim,) but after the discussion, "Father Maguire" became the most popular Priest in Ireland. Pope retired from the contest conscious of defeat, for he never challenged any more priests.

The second volume is addressed to the working classes, with a dedication to Sir Robert Peel, Bart. "New Books.—'The Castle of Roussillon, or Quercy in the 16th Century.' Translated from the French by Mrs. J. Sadlier. When the reading world is so completely inundated with a light and trashy literature, always full of loose and, not unfrequently, infidel tendencies, it is really refreshing—'tis in fact a green spot in the wilderness of modern book-making—when we alight upon a work of fiction like the above-named little volume, whose scenes of high dramatic interest are interwoven in the most graphic manner, with all that is noble and moral in humanity—when virtue triumphs over vice, gentleness and forbearance over hardened crime and abandoned villany. Unlike most French works on assuming the Anglo-Saxon dress, this would seem to have lost little of its original piquancy and raciness, in the hands of the fair translator. The typography is neat, and does credit to the publisher. For a holiday present, 'tis a cheap and very pretty gift."—Brooklyn Daily Advertiser.

Sick Calls;

FROM THE DIARY OF A MISSIONARY PRIEST.

By the REV. EDWARD PRICE, M.A. The volume contains the following stories:

- | | |
|------------------------|----------------------------|
| The Infidel. | The Merchant's Clerk. |
| The Dying Banker. | Death-beds of the Poor. |
| The Drunkard's Death. | A Missioner's Sunday Work. |
| The Miser's Death. | The Dying Burglar. |
| The Wanderer's Death. | The Magdalen. |
| The Dying Shirt Maker. | The Famished Needlewoman. |
| The Broken Heart. | The Cholera Patient. |
| The Destitute Poor. | The Hospital. |

All the above Tales are from Real Life, having been witnessed by the Reverend Author during a long Missionary Career, in that Modern Babylon, London. It is not too much to say in its favor that it is worth a dozen of the modern "Gift Books."

The Work is a handsome 18mo. volume of 400 pages, printed from new type on fine paper. Illustrated with 2 steel engravings, and bound in the neatest manner at the following prices:

Cloth, plain, 50 cents.

Cloth, gilt, 75 cents.

Imitation Morocco, gilt, $1.

"This is equal in interest to Warren's Diary of a late Physician."—London Times.

A New Treatise on the Duty of a Christian towards God;

Being an enlarged and improved edition of the original treatise. Written by the venerable J. B. DE LA SALLE, founder of Christian Schools. Translated from the French by Mrs. J. SADLIER. First American from the eighteenth Paris edition.

Half roan, 37½ cents.

School edition, per doz., $3.

For general use, fine paper, full cloth, neat, 50 cents.

Gilt muslin and edges, 75 cents.

Imitation Morocco, gilt edges, $1.

11,000 copies of this edition have been sold within the past year.

"The publishers have added to this volume prayers at mass, and rules of Christian politeness, which will be found an acceptable addition. We have not seen the work in the original French, and cannot speak of the fidelity of the translation, but from Mrs. Sadlier's reputation as a translator, we presume it to be no less faithful than spirited and tasteful. The work itself is used as a class book in the schools of the Christian Brothers in France and Canada, and has been translated at the request of the Christian Brothers, for the use of those of their pupils who speak the English language. It is an admirable class book for instruction in the Christian doctrine, and equally admirable for parents, who will refresh their own knowledge of their religion, and teach their children their duty to God. We wish it were adopted as a reading book in all our schools."—Brownson's Review.

"New Years' Books.—'Duty of a Christian towards God'—translated from the French of De la Salle by Mrs. J. Sadlier. We do not often notice religious books, but in this happy and beautiful season, when, more than at any other period of the year, the luxuries and good things of life are so abundantly enjoyed, it is wholesome to reflect, that our sole business in life is not to 'eat, drink, and be merry,' that, after all, we are but pilgrims (of immortality) journeying through a fast fleeting and perishable world. As an aid to such salutary reflections, and as a guide to practically carry them out, until they bear fruit a hundredfold, the study of the book before us is highly adapted. At the end of the volume is a sequel of near 50 pages, entitled 'The Principles of Christian Politeness,' worth the price of the entire book. The work is published by the Sadliers, and got up in their accustomed tasty style."—Brooklyn Daily Advertiser.

"We have received 'A New Treatise on the Duty of a Christian towards God.' This work was originally written by the venerable J. B. de la Salle, and has gone through eighteen editions in Paris. The copy before us has been translated by Mrs. J. Sadlier, and is a most faithful version; of the work itself it is impossible to speak too highly. The instruction conveyed is of the most solid description, and yet delivered in a style so pleasing that it is impossible to lay down the book, once you have begun to read it, until you have finished it. In fact, no Catholic can have his library complete without it. Added to the present edition there are 'Prayers for Mass' and the 'Rules of Christian Politeness.'—Catholic Observer.

Benjamin; or, The Pupil of the Christian Brothers.

Translated from the French, by Mrs. J. SADLIER. 32mo.
250 pages. Price 25 cents.

At the present moment when the whole Catholic world is awaking to the vital importance of securing a religious education for the rising generation, it seemed to me that this little work might do a great deal of good, and I have hastily thrown it into an English form for the benefit of our own people, both parents and children. Let both read, the children for amusement and the parents for instruction, and let the latter reflect on the contents of this simple volume,—they will find it a most useful lesson.

It is with inexpressible joy that I see the schools of the Christian Brothers spreading from town to town and from city to city throughout the length and breadth of Christendom. Nation after nation is opening her arms to invite their approach, and wherever they go they bring with them true faith, humble, fervent piety, and the purest of all morality. These are the lessons that they everywhere inculcate, and our Benjamin is but one instance of the benign effects of their teachings. The day has at length come, when Catholic parents have no longer an excuse for sending their children to "Godless" schools—they all have the means of having sound religious instructions blended with their children's secular learning, and woe be to them if they avail themselves not of the advantages placed by Providence at their disposal.

This little book shows clearly the duty of Catholics to send their children to Catholic Schools, and their superiority over others.

"The selection of this story is additional evidence of the good taste of Mrs. Sadlier, and of her right Catholic feeling. Benjamin is a boy who was thrown upon the world at a very early age, and who finally turned out well. The story is intended to illustrate the ease with which a good child is corrupted by bad companions,—the difficulty of winning him from evil courses, and the immense importance of a truly Christian education for the young. The system pursued by the Christian Brothers is fully vindicated in the little book. We recommend it, not only to children, but to the attentive consideration of parents."—Boston Pilot.

This work now supplies the great want hitherto felt amongst the Catholics of the United States, of a book in which the service both of the forenoon and afternoon of the Sundays and principal Festivals of the year should be found, and which might serve at the same time, as a standard work for the regulation of the Music of Catholic churches in general; such a work must be productive of great good, and will tend to prevent the introduction into Catholic churches, of music neither appropriate, nor adapted to the solemnity of Divine Worship. To those desirous of studying Church Music, we can, with every confidence recommend it.

We are at liberty to state, that the present work has been compiled by the direction and under the immediate inspection of the Rt. Rev. Dr. Fenwick, Bishop of Boston. It was long the wish of that Rt. Rev. Prelate, and of the Rev. Clergy of his Diocese, to have a Catholic Choir-Book, in which the Service, both of the forenoon and afternoon of the Sundays and principal Festivals of the year, should be found, and which might serve, at the same time, as a standard work for the regulation of the Music in the choirs of all the Catholic churches in his Diocese. It was thought that such a work, properly executed, would be productive of very great good, as it would preclude the necessity of introducing into the choirs Music which is neither appropriate to the season, nor adapted to the majesty of the house of God, or to the dignity of Catholic worship.

"The compiler having observed for a long time the necessity of a cheap Singing Book, suitable for Catholic Singing Schools, and small choirs, has been induced to prepare this work, with the hope that it may be received with favor by those for whom it is intended; believing that, if properly executed, it would be productive of much good, and be of great advantage to Singing Schools and Societies.

As singing is considered of so much consequence at the present day, being taught and studied to a considerable extent in the common schools, Catholic children are in the habit of singing in these schools, hymns and songs used in Protestant worship, and when they go home, or are at play, they are singing them over, for want of a CHEAP CATHOLIC SINGING BOOK, to practise and amuse themselves in their leisure hours, and thus impart new vigor to the mind." The highest commendations have been bestowed upon this cheap and useful work, by the American Catholic Press.

This Manual contains, in addition to forms in general use, various devotions selected from approved Continental works. The Prayers, Litanies, &c., &c., have been collated with the Latin originals, wherever such works were known to exist. The English version of the Psalms here given, has been constructed by a comparison of the authorized Douay text (to which in substance it adheres), with the several other versions which from time to time have been sanctioned for the purpose of devotions. The Indulged Prayers have been literally translated from the Racotta, Bouvier's Treatise on Indulgences, and the last edition of the Celeste Palmetuni. The particulars connected with the Confraternities, &c., to which Indulgences are attached, have been carefully collected from authorized sources, published with the approbation of His Eminence Cardinal Wiseman. The American edition has been enlarged with numerous translations from the French and Italian, and selections of prayers in general use in this country; together with the complete offices of the Blessed Virgin, and Gospels and Collects for every Sunday throughout the year, and explanations of all the Festivals, with a large number of Novenas, Litanies, and a list of the Popes, &c., &c.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

We have received, from the publishers, a copy of this excellent Prayer Book, and we cheerfully recommend it to our subscribers. We cannot do better than by copying a notice of it from the Dublin Review, for July, 1850, merely prefacing it, by stating that three hundred pages have been added by the American editor, adding greatly to the merits of the English edition.

"It may seem strange, that, after the numberless reprints of our old and long recognized prayer books, the many modifications of these books, and the equally numerous new compilations which have been issued from the Catholic presses of England, Ireland, and Scotland, during the last twenty years, there should still be room for a new compilation, entirely distinct from its predecessors, and in many respects independent of them all; nevertheless, 'THE GOLDEN MANUAL' will be found to realize this description. In the greater part of its contents it is, in the fullest sense of the word, to English readers, at least, an entirely new prayer book. There is a certain sense in which this character would be any thing rather than a recommendation. But the originality of the 'GOLDEN MANUAL' is of a perfectly unexceptionable kind. It does not consist in the introduction of new and unauthorized prayers, or in the arbitrary and unsanctioned modification of old ones; but in the adjustment of the received prayers and devotional exercises in accordance with the best and most authentic usage, and particularly in adopting uniformly, and without exception, the form of each particular prayer, which has been approved by the Holy See, and to which an indulgence has been specially attached.

"Another and most commendable characteristic of the 'GOLDEN MANUAL' is the large and frequent use it makes of the best, the holiest, and the most efficacious of all forms of prayer—those which the Church has consecrated by adopting them in her Liturgy. It has often been a subject of regret, that the faithful have been excluded by the want of the necessary Service books, from the edification and instruction, as well as the actual incentives to piety, which are supplied by the public services of the Church ritual; and the want has been especially painful in those portions of the ritual which regard the administration of the Sacraments. What prayers for the sick, for instance, for the dying, can be compared in tenderness, in unction, in impressiveness, and, we must of course add, in intrinsic virtue, with those of the Holy Viaticum, the Extreme Unction, and the Last Benediction? How would it be possible to devise a form of preparation for Confirmation, so calculated to strike the young imagination, and to touch the tender heart, as that, which, in the Church's own words, describes the communication and in-dwelling of the Holy Spirit? And hence it is that we have ever desired to see the magnificent services of the Roman ritual placed within the reach of every Catholic, and made familiar to the humblest of the faithful, not alone in the spirit and in the graces which they confer, but in the very words and forms in which they are administered.

"We welcome, with very peculiar satisfaction, that portion of the Manual which concerns the use and administration of the Sacraments, and the preparation of the faithful for duly receiving them. Besides all the Ordinary Devotions and Instructions, it contains the actual serving of the administration of Baptism, Confirmation, the Eucharist, Extreme Unction, and Marriage, both in Latin and English; and in these, as well as all the other Church Services introduced into the work, we cannot speak in terms of too high commendation of the accuracy, simplicity, tastefulness, and solemnity of the translation.

"Another very important novelty in the 'GOLDEN MANUAL' is the introduction of a variety of most useful prayers and devotional exercises, which, though unknown to Catholics in these countries, are, and long have been, familiar on the Continent. Many of these are translated from the admirable Colesto Palmetum of Naketenus, and from the Libellus Precum, but a large number also are from the Italian. And in these also, especial attention has been paid to the devotions to which indulgences are attached, on all of which, full and satisfactory explanations are given. The collection of Litanies, also, is extremely full and complete.

"In the various Hymns and Sequences, Mr. Caswell's admirable translations are adopted."

The Book is elegantly bound, and the illustrations are very finely executed.—Montreal True Witness.

"This is a reprint from an English Manual approved by Cardinal Wiseman, with large additions by the American editor. It is the largest and most complete manual of devotion we are acquainted with. It contains a great variety of devotions, adapted to almost every occasion and to every taste, and, as far as we have examined it, selected with judgment and true devotional feeling. We know of little, except in devotions before and after communion, that we could desire to have added, and we have met with nothing in it that we wish to have omitted. It is due to the publishers to say that the copy before us is well printed, and richly bound. It contains numerous illustrations, several of which are executed with much artistic skill and taste. There is no occasion to commend this Golden Manual to the public, for it is approved by the Most Rev. the Archbishop of New York, and is sure to become, and deservedly, a great favorite with devout Christians."—Brownson's Quarterly Review for July, 1851.

"Many excellent prayer books have, during the last few years, made their appearance among us; but the one now before us, appears destined to carry off the palm of superiority. It is certainly the most complete manual of public and private devotion that we have yet seen. Indeed, we know not how it could be rendered more perfect, as it appears to contain every thing that one could desire for such a use, whether at home or at church. We do not hesitate to pronounce it the ne plus ultra in the prayer-book line. The book contains over 1000 pages, but it is so compactly put together as to bring it within moderate size. It is got up too in a style corresponding to its great intrinsic excellence. Its typography, illustrations, binding, &c., are all of superior quality. The copy which the publishers have sent us is truly an exquisite specimen of the high state of perfection to which the book-making art has been carried.

"All who desire to have a perfect prayer book should furnish themselves with a copy of the Golden Manual. It may be had at the Catholic bookstores, and at St. John's Orphan store."—Philadelphia Catholic Herald.

"THE GOLDEN MANUAL has just been published by the Sadliers of this city, in a very complete and elegant volume. We think this prayer book is destined to have a very large sale. It is one of the largest, if not the largest, in the English language, and has some features not to be found in any other of our best prayer books. Among these are some additions of popular devotions, and some of the new and beautiful translations of Ecclesiastical hymns, sequences, &c."—New York Freeman's Journal.

WORKS ON IRELAND.

P. 50 cts.

THE

HISTORY OF IRELAND,

Ancient and Modern.

Taken from the most authentic records, and dedicated to the Irish Brigade, by the ABBE MACGEOGHEGAN. Translated from the French by PATRICK O'KELLY, Esq., with four fine Steel Engravings. This important national history is printed in clear type, on fine paper, with marginal lines, and has been most favorably reviewed by the American and European Press.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

"Our citizens have now a most favorable opportunity of supplying themselves with the best History of Ireland extant. There are several works devoted to the subject, but some are corrupt, others bigoted, many incomplete and inaccurate. We may say of Keating, Leland, Plowden, Taylor, Moore, Smiles, &c., that their histories are defective or incomplete. Common consent seems to have fixed upon the work of the Abbé MacGeoghegan as the best. The author was chaplain of the illustrious 'Irish Brigade,' a patriotic son of Ireland, and an accomplished scholar of polished and unusual acquirements. He had the best opportunities and full leisure in the French capital for the formation of his history. It is considered a work most faithful and honest, accurate in detail, liberal, patriotic, and high-toned in sentiment, and more complete than any other History of Ireland that we possess."—Freeman's Journal.

The late lamented Thomas Davis, in an Essay on Irish History, speaks of this work as follows:—

"Well, as to this National History—L'Abbé MacGeoghegan published a history of Ireland in French, in 3 vols., quarto, dedicated to the Irish Brigade. Writing in France, he was free from English censorship—writing for 'The Brigade,' he avoided the impudence of Huguenot historians. The sneers of the Deist, Voltaire, and the lies of the Catholic Cambrensis, receive a sharp chastisement in his preface, and a full answer in his text. He was a man of the most varied acquirements, and an elegant writer. For the student of Irish History it is the best book in the world. He is graphic, easy, and Irish. He is not a bigot, but apparently a genuine Catholic. His information as to the number of troops and other facts of our Irish Battles, is superior to any other general Historian, and they who know it well need not blush, as most Irishmen must now, at their ignorance of Irish History."

The Rise and Fall of the Irish Nation.

THE RISE AND FALL OF THE IRISH NATION, by Sir JONAH BARRINGTON, one of his Majesty's counsel at law, judge of the high court of admiralty of Ireland, and member of the late Irish parliament for the cities of Tuam and Clogher. The work contains much valuable information and interesting matter never before published, sketches of the leading members of both sides who figured so conspicuously during that memorable epoch of Irish history. It also contains the red and black list, showing the bribery and corruption by which the Union was carried. The work is a handsome royal 12mo. volume of 472 pages, beautifully printed on fine paper, with portraits of the Author, Fitzgerald, Curran, Grattan, and other distinguished personages on both sides, in all 29 miniature portraits on Steel.

The above work is admitted by competent judges, to be one of the most beautiful productions of the day. It was sold in Dublin, when first published, at $10. Such is its intrinsic merits, that it has been admitted by the Superintendants of Public Schools, into the District School Libraries of the various States. No Irishman, who is desirous of becoming acquainted with that epoch of his country's history—the rise of the volunteers—the declaration of rights—and the debates connected with that tyrannous act, the Legislative Union; should fail to possess a copy of this admirable work.

"'The Rise and Fall of the Irish Nation,' is one of the most picturesque and eloquent books in the whole range of our language. Its sketches of political scenes and characters, are, without comparison, the most life-like we know. It is a treasure of a book; one we would not exchange for any ten National books we have."—American Celt.

Valentine McClutchy.

VALENTINE McCLUTCHY, the Irish Agent; the Chronicles of Castle Cumber; together with the Pious Aspirations, Permissions, and other Sanctified Privileges of Solomon McSlime, a Religious Attorney. By WILLIAM CARLETON.

In this work Mr. Carleton has depicted the wrongs and sufferings of his countrymen—their patience and forbearance under their sufferings. And in the character of Valentine McClutchy, he shows the villany practised by the agents of absentee landlords, upon those tenants who are so unfortunate as to hold lands from them.

And as a specimen of a religious Attorney, we would challenge creation to produce a more correct picture than that drawn by Carleton of Solomon McSlime. We venture to say that there is not an Irishman, who would read ten pages of the work, that would be without it for ten times the cost.—Full muslin, embossed, gilt back, 75 cents.

This important Lecture of the Most Rev. Archbishop, furnishes at one view a condensed History of the Colonies from the earliest period, and exhibits the various religious influences which were involved in the revolutionary contest; and gives it a peculiar value to those who would truly understand the History of our country. In this discourse, the Most Rev. Archbishop proves beyond cavil, not only by force of argument, but by a powerful, convincing, and indisputable array of facts, the indebtedness of the United States to Catholic Powers and Catholic Influence for their Liberty, and that Religious Liberty was not a boon, but entirely a matter of necessity.

A SECOND LETTER ON THE MORAL CAUSES THAT HAVE PRODUCED THE EVIL SPIRIT OF THE TIMES. By the Most Rev. JOHN HUGHES, D. D. 6½

The effect of these two memorable Letters on the public mind can never be forgotten. It was as salutary as it was signal. The public judgment, which had been whirled away in the dangerous and protracted excitement which preceded and followed the Philadelphia riots, was at length arrested and directed to the great principles which had been so long forgotten; a comparative calm succeeded a passionate agitation, the words of truth and persuasion were heard, and a mass of bitter prejudice was, if not wholly removed, greatly broken down and lessened.

SHANDY M'GUIRE, OR TRICKS UPON TRAVELLERS.

A Story of the North of Ireland. By PAUL PEPPERGRASS, Esq. 1 volume 16mo. In half-cloth binding, 50 cents; full cloth, gilt backs, 75 cents.

"Shandy M'Guire" is emphatically a "Story of the North of Ireland." The plot is mainly laid in the heart of the county Donegal, and the characteristic life of that remote region is beautifully portrayed. The fair and the fighting, the gauger and the illicit still—the Orangemen and Ribbonmen—the grasping agent and the suffering cottager—the Priest of the People, and the proselyting Minister of the Established Church, are all successfully and strikingly portrayed.

ANNIE AND HER AUNT. By a CONVERT. 18mo. 25 cents.

The Boston Pilot says:—"This is a good little story—quite suitable for Catholic children. Annie is a little Catholic girl who is thrown into Protestant society, and, of course, tempted in various ways to deny her faith, or to disobey the Church. She resists heroically, and she is rewarded at the end. We think that she was sufficiently scrupulous about the birthday party. But Annie is a good girl, and we cordially introduce her to our young readers.

 THE HOLY BIBLE, translated from the Latin Vulgate, diligently compared with the Hebrew, Greek, and other editions in various languages. The OLD TESTAMENT, first published by the English College at Douay, A. D. 1609; and the NEW TESTAMENT, first published by the English College at Rheims, A. D. 1582, with useful notes, Critical, Historical, Controversial and Explanatory, from the most eminent Commentators and able and judicious critics, by the Rev. GEO. LEO HAYDOCK, D. D.

EDWARD DUNIGAN & BROTHER respectfully inform the Catholic Public that they are publishing a new and superb edition of the Douay Version of the Sacred Scriptures; no attempt having hitherto been made to bring within the reach of the Catholics in America generally a Large Family Bible, with an approved and Comprehensive Commentary, at a moderate price, and accessible in its mode of publication. The Edition known as HAYDOCK'S has long been out of print, and was originally published at a price so very high, and in form so unwieldy, as to prevent its general circulation. It is the aim of the Publishers of the present edition to supply all deficiencies, by the issue in Numbers, of an Imperial Quarto Edition of the Douay Bible and Rheims New Testament, with a Comprehensive Commentary from the most able Divines, and at about one-fourth the cost of the original edition.

To produce a superb edition of the Bible suitable alike for the Library of the Learned as well as for the Family Circle, and combining at once an ample and convenient size, without encountering the cumberousness of the folio or the inelegance of the ordinary quarto, it has been determined to adopt for this work the Imperial Quarto Page, the dimensions of which are sufficiently capacious to admit great legibility, and of such pleasing proportions, as to obviate the objections so frequently urged against the folio and ordinary quarto.

DUNIGAN & BROTHER'S HAYDOCK'S UNABRIDGED BIBLE.

The work was originally prepared for the press in 1811 by the Rev. GEO. LEO HAYDOCK, when it received the unanimous approbation of the Rt. Rev. Catholic Prelates of Great Britain and Ireland; and as a guarantee for the correctness and authenticity of this, the only COMPLETE and UNABRIDGED American edition now in course of publication, the Publishers present the following approbation of the Most Rev. Archbishop of New-York:—

“This new Edition of the English version of the BIBLE, with the complete notes of Bishop CHALLONER, Rev. GEORGE LEO HAYDOCK, and others, and known as HAYDOCK'S CATHOLIC BIBLE, having been duly examined, we hereby approve of its re-publication by Edward Dunigan & Brother of this city.

“Given at New-York, this 5th day of May, 1852, under our hand and seal.

✠ “JOHN, Archbishop of New-York.”

This edition contains the most copious notes ever appended to any yet published in the English Language, and no expense has been spared to render it altogether the finest edition of the Sacred Scriptures yet presented to the American public. The paper is of the best description, type large, clear, and admirably adapted to the weakest vision, the letter-press carefully and accurately executed, and the illustrations Chefs d'œuvre of Art.

The object of the Publishers, in issuing this splendid edition, has been to supply a want long felt by the Catholic community of America, a Family Bible with an extensive Commentary, and at a price so moderate as to place it within the reach of all. To effect this desirable object, they are issuing it in Numbers, so that, in this way, every one can easily become the owner, in a comparatively short time, of one of the most superb Family Bibles and extensive Commentaries illustrative of the Text, ever published.

CONDITIONS:—The Work will be printed in Large Imperial Quarto Size, and contain about Seventeen Hundred Pages of Letter-press, printed on the finest White Paper, from new type cast expressly for this Edition; and will form one of the most magnificent Books ever published in this country, and be altogether the most correct and splendid Edition of the Sacred Scriptures with Comprehensive Commentary illustrative of the Text, ever issued in the English Language. The Illustrations will be more than Twenty of the most superb Engravings of the highest finish and beauty, by the most eminent Artists of the day, and be completed in Thirty-eight Numbers, at Twenty-five cents each, payable in all cases on delivery, and issued in rapid succession.

The Publishers feel confident in stating, that no Edition of the Scriptures equally beautiful in point of typography, superbly engraved illustrations, or elegance of form, has yet been offered to the public, and trust it will find among Catholic families, the Clergy, and the Laity generally, that extensive sale to which only it is obvious, at a price so very low, they must look for remuneration.

Some of the Critical Opinions of the Press,
OF DUNIGAN & BROTHER'S HAYDOCK'S UNABRIDGED BIBLE.

The sixth number of Dunigan & Brother's celebrated edition of Haydock's Catholic Family Bible is on our table, and though we had been led to imagine that it would be presented to the community in a style far surpassing any edition yet published, still we must confess that the work far exceeds our expectations. Haydock's Bible needs no word from us to insure it a wide and speedy circulation—it has been universally acknowledged to be the best edition extant; and we are pleased to see that the Catholics of the United States have within their reach an accurate, cheap, and beautiful edition.”—New-York Truth Teller.

“This celebrated Family Bible is in the imperial quarto size, without any abridgment of the extensive commentaries of the distinguished Haydock. The work is brought out in the most superb style, equal to any work ever issued from the American press, and is the most complete and most elegantly executed edition of the Holy Scriptures that can be procured in the English language. Every family should seize this opportunity of obtaining at a very low price a copy of this superb Bible.”—Baltimore Mirror.

“This splendid and cheap edition is published with the approbation of Archbishop Hughes of New-York. A finer edition of this Holy Book, with a Commentary as extensive, has never before been offered to the Catholic public, nor one so cheap or deserving of their patronage.”—Pittsburg Catholic.

“We call the attention of our readers to the New Edition of the Holy Bible which Dunigan & Brothers are issuing in numbers. The first number is now before us, and it is truly one of the most beautiful specimens of typography that we have yet seen. It is a wonder how they can get up such a work for twenty-five cents a number. We consider this one of the greatest and most laudable undertakings, and trust it will be duly appreciated by the Catholic community. Judging by the specimen before us, the work will be magnificently executed, and constitute a gem of inestimable value.”—Philadelphia Catholic Herald.

“A splendid edition of the Sacred Scriptures.”—Boston Pilot.

“The most beautiful, complete, and accurate copy of the Book of Books ever offered to the Catholics of America.”—American Celt.

“We hope no family will be without a Bible, while such a beautiful edition can be had so cheap.”—Toronto Mirror.

“Dunigan & Brother's splendidly illustrated and unabridged edition of Haydock's Family Bible, contains the most copious notes ever appended to any as yet published in the English language, and no expense or labor is spared to render it altogether the finest edition of the Scriptures yet published in the United States.”—Washington Republic.

“The specimens before us equal, in the taste displayed in the details of printing, paper, &c., the finest works yet issued from the press of this country, and the authenticity and correctness is vouched for by the approbation of the Most Rev. Archbishop Hughes.”—New-York Literary World.

“In typography, paper, and elegance of mechanical execution throughout, this reflects the highest credit.”—New-York Courier and Enquirer.

“A superb specimen of typography.”—New-York Tribune.

“A superior and attractive work, handsomely got up, and printed on beautiful type, and elaborated with notes.”—New-York Herald.

“Dunigan's edition is one of the most splendid specimens of printing yet produced.”—New-York Morning Star.

Some of the Critical Opinions of the Press,
OF DUNIGAN & BROTHER'S HAYDOCK'S UNABRIDGED BIBLE.

"We have seen many copies of the Holy Book, but never one that exceeded this."—New-York Irish American.

"This magnificent publication, under the approbation of Archbishop Hughes, forms an epoch in the history of sacred publications. It is printed in a style of elegance wholly unsurpassed."—New-York News.

"The most elegant edition of the Bible ever published in this country, is the Douay Bible, now in course of publication by Edward Dunigan & Brother. It has a copious commentary and notes, and is especially recommended by Archbishop Hughes, of this city. In form, style, and beauty of paper and print, it has rarely been equalled by any work ever issued in this country."—New-York Sachem.

"Dunigan & Brother have commenced a magnificent publication, which we recommend to all Catholics, as well as amateurs of fine books. It is an English version of the Holy Bible from the Latin Vulgate, in a new form elegantly illustrated. The Archbishop of New-York, Monseigneur Hughes, has given his approbation to this new edition, and that dispenses with all eulogy in regard to the purity of the Text. But we can insist on the beauty of the typographical execution, which leaves nothing to desire."—New-York Courier des Etats Unis.

"This edition surpasses in elegance and correctness any thing yet produced in this line."—New-York Freeman's Journal.

"Published in a very handsome form, the Text in large and clear type, on fine white paper, and we hope will be extensively patronized."—New-York Churchman.

"This magnificent work is the most cheap and elegant edition of the Bible ever published—nothing ever got up in this country at all comparable to it. It contains all Haydock's Notes complete."—New-York Atlas.

"This work is brought out in the most superb style, equal to any work ever issued from the American Press."—New-York Mirror.

"A superb Catholic Edition of the Bible."—New-York Book Trade.

"The notes are certainly most copious, and if published separate, would form a book containing twice as much reading matter as the Bible itself, and is a very creditable specimen of enterprise and skill."—New-York Evening Post.

"Beautifully printed and very superior illustrations. The typography and illustrations are elegant, and as an authorized Catholic Bible and extensive Commentary, we commend it to our Protestant readers."—Washington National Era.

"A splendid specimen of typography."—New-York Day Book.

"A superb specimen of typography, and is illustrated with engravings in the highest style of Art."—Harper's Monthly Magazine.

"Haydock's edition of the Bible has justly obtained the reputation of being the best Catholic edition of the Bible in the English Language. For the acenracy of the Text the reader has the authority of the Most Rev. Archbishop of New-York, under whose sanction this edition is published. For beauty of typography, and general excellence in mechanical execution, Dunigan & Brother's new and handsomely illustrated edition is not surpassed by any edition of the Bible that has appeared in Europe or on this Continent. The lowness of the price—25 cents a number—places it within the reach of almost all classes of society."—Montreal True Witness.

This new edition of the "Glories of Mary," translated under the direction of the Redemptorist Fathers, is the first complete translation that has ever been made into the English language of that most beautiful book. As a manual of devotion for the use of Catholics, it is one of the most admirable books ever written; its simplicity, its fervor, its lucid arrangement, examples, and its beautiful and comprehensive prayers, must make it a great favorite.

The London Tablet says: "A magnificent edition, which certainly does great credit to the well-known Catholic firm in New-York, who have brought it out."

The Brownson Review says: "A very beautiful edition of one of the sweetest and most admired of the Devotional Works of that great saint, M. Alphonsus Liguori. The translation has been made by one that is abundantly able to do it faithfully, tastefully, and effectually."

The New York Freeman's Journal says: "The most beautiful Book of Devotion in the English language."

The Boston Pilot says: "One of the best Devotional Books ever written."

LIFE OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, MOTHER OF GOD.

This translation from the French of the Abbe Orsini, who collected his facts from traditions of the East, the manners of the Israelites, and the writings of the Holy Fathers, is written in a peculiarly graceful and felicitous style. The most prominent events in the life of the Blessed Virgin; her seclusion in the gorgeous temple of Solomon; her laborious life in the picturesque village of Nazareth; her sufferings on Calvary; her wanderings with St. John, and death at Ephesus, are brought before the mind with more than the vividness of painting.

The Charleston Catholic Miscellany says: "This is truly a beautiful book."

The London Tablet says: "This is an opportune book, which has given us much pleasure. It conveys a holy and lovely idea, and we can be certain that some such life as this the Blessed Virgin must have led according to the circumstances related of her by a constant and harmonious tradition."

The London Rambler says: "This is a work of European reputation, and has received the highest testimonials of approbation from authorized judges."

Some of the Opinions of the Press.

Brownson's Review says:—"A volume which, for illustrations, letter-press and binding, is unsurpassed by any of the fashionable annuals of the country, and a suitable Gift Book for the holydays, or any season of the year. There can be no doubt the Catholic Offering will be a favorite."

The Dublin Tablet says:—"This is a magnificent livre de luxe which, indeed, does high credit to the Catholic press of New-York; elegantly printed, with illuminated title pages, and presentation fly leaf, profusely adorned with engravings, and arrayed in costly binding of azure and gold. The work itself is sufficiently recommended to the favor of the Catholic public as the composition of the eminent Bishop of Halifax. Each great festival has an article devoted to it, written with great fervor, and the miscellaneous papers are very interesting."

The Catholic Mirror says:—"The appearance of this volume begins a new era in the annals of English Catholic Literature. The contents are from the pen of the eminent Right Rev. Bishop Walsh, well known for his learning and literary ability, and may be read at all times with pleasure and profit. In mechanical appearance, it is far superior to any publication, as far as we know, that has appeared from the Catholic press in England or America. It is a splendid volume, which affords an opportunity at the holyday season or any other time of proving a Gift Book for children or friends."

The Catholic Herald says:—"Decidedly the most splendid work that has issued from the Catholic Press in America."

NEW SPELLING BOOK, The best in the English Language.

THE PRACTICAL SPELLING BOOK.

By CHARLES JAMES CANNON. 12mo. Half bound, 168 pages, 12½ cents.

The great advantages possessed by the "Practical Spelling Book" over all other books now in use, is the fulness with which the Vowel and Diphthongal sounds are treated in its lessons, thus rendering the first steps toward knowledge comparatively easy, and the progress of the learner sure as well as rapid; and to this may be added another of hardly less importance, the relief afforded to the monotony of the spelling lessons by short exercises in reading, from the writings of those holy and practical men, St. Vincent de Paul, and St. Philip Neri, by which a needful recreation is provided for the young mind, and a moral strength imparted, which nothing in after life is likely ever to destroy.

The Baltimore Catholic Mirror says:—"Mr. Cannon has produced the most systematic and most excellent manual that we are acquainted with, for teaching the rudiments of the English Language. He begins with some explanatory remarks on the different sounds of the Vowels, Consonants, &c., and their value in various positions. He then proceeds to give lessons commencing with the letters of the alphabet, and extending to words of the greatest length, but the arrangement is such as to lead the pupil gradually step by step in the knowledge of Spelling and Reading—each particular sound of the Vowels and Consonants, together with the Diphthongs and Triphthongs, has a lesson for its illustration, and at the head of each lesson this sound is stated, in order to bring more forcibly to the learner's attention—another excellent feature is that every page contains one or more instructive sentences, intended not only to serve as lessons in reading, but to instil virtuous impressions into the minds of youth."

The book is commendable in other respects, and its merits are such that it should be adopted in all our schools for teaching the rudiments of the English tongue.

The Railway Advocate says:—"We have not seen any elementary work which struck us as so admirably adapted to the purpose of giving children a thorough understanding of the nature and rules of Language as this PRACTICAL SPELLING BOOK. For truly practical it is. It does not attempt to follow the modern fashion of seeking "The Royal Road to Knowledge," but aims to give the child a thorough understanding of ideas, rather than merely to learn words by rote. We strongly commend it to the examination of teachers, and those interested in the education of youth."

GENERAL HISTORY OF EUROPE, from the beginning of the 16th century to 1840.
12mo. By the Ladies of New-Hall Convent, England,..... 75

No part of history is so essential for Catholics, and especially youth, as that which covers the three last eventful centuries. The swarms of books in our language which bear on it, are based on the philosophical theory that the Church of Rome is corrupt, and history is made to explain, develop, and inculcate this. Catholic youth are more or less contaminated by this idea. A great want is, a real history—a true one; and a better manual for this purpose cannot be recommended than this work, which has been admired and approved by most competent judges in England and America, no less for its fidelity than for the purity of its style.

THE CATHOLIC EDUCATIONAL SERIES.
LESSONS FOR YOUNG LEARNERS, No. 1 & No. 2.

To supply a want long felt and acknowledged, the want of School Books of a National character and a true Catholic spirit, the Subscribers have been urged to the present undertaking, and intend, under the above title, to publish a series of works designed for elementary instruction. Of this series, No. 1 and No. 2 are now ready, and in these it will be perceived that, while great pains have been taken to assist the learner in his attempts at mastering the rudiments of knowledge, the compiler, who is a Catholic gentleman of many years' experience in teaching, has endeavored to sow in the young mind the seeds of religion, which, it is hoped, will one day produce an abundant harvest of Christian virtues, without which all knowledge would be vain.

LESSONS FOR YOUNG LEARNERS. No. 1. 18mo. Strong Paper, 6 $\frac{1}{4}$ cts.
do do do. No. 2. 18mo. Half-bound, 12 $\frac{1}{4}$ cts.

Some of the Opinions of the Press.

The Pittsburg Catholic says:—"There was long a want seriously felt in the Catholic community in consequence of the difficulty, we may say impossibility, of placing in the hands of Catholic children any school book in general use, entirely free from attacks on their religion, and insults to their faith. The above Books, containing reading and spelling lessons, are of an Educational Series intended to supply this want; and as parents must provide school-books for their children, it becomes a duty to give the preference to those especially provided for them, and in doing so nothing is lost, but much gained: for, apart from other considerations, and viewed only as school-books, these are inferior to none, and far superior to the majority now in use."

Charleston Miscellany says:—"These two books of Lessons for Young Learners are not only admirably adapted for their purpose, as books of elementary instruction, by their good system, clear rules, and gradual progress from the easy to the difficult, but they are invaluable for their Catholic tendency—Prayers, Passages of Scripture, Portions of Bible History, narrated in a way to suit the capacity of children. Exquisite Hymns, Wood-cuts that combine good taste with piety, all conspire to impress strongly upon the young mind veneration for their religion."

Catholic Mirror says:—"We take pleasure in recommending them to the favorable attention of those who preside over our schools and academies. The arrangement is of a very practical character, and thoroughly Catholic—precisely the book needed for the instruction of Catholic children, and to make elementary education truly Christian in character."

OUTLINES OF HISTORY. For the use of Schools and Academies.
By PIERCE C. GRACE, Esq.

Neat half roan binding.....37 $\frac{1}{4}$ cts.

The publishers deem themselves fortunate in being able to include in the "Catholic Educational Series" so invaluable a compendium of History as these "Outlines," the production of a Catholic layman of high literary character, which they are confident will be found far superior to most of the books now in use; for while in simplicity of arrangement and conciseness of expression it is hardly inferior to any book of the kind in the English language, the Catholic spirit which pervades the whole prevents those contradictions between the facts stated, and the strange opinions they are made to support, so apparent in most of the Histories intended for the use of Schools.

EDWARD DUNIGAN & BROTHER,
151 FULTON STREET, NEAR BROADWAY, ARE RE-PUBLISHING WITH THE APPROBATION OF THE MOST REV. JOHN HUGHES, D. D.,
ARCHBISHOP OF NEW-YORK,

THE NEW AND CHEAP CLIFTON TRACTS,

Now in course of Publication in London, by the Brotherhood of St. Vincent of Paul, under the sanction of the Bishop of Clifton, and with the approbation of Cardinal WISEMAN, and all the Catholic Bishops of England.

This Series of Tracts was originated with the view of supplying a want long and generally felt of a number of CHEAP single Publications, which, at the same time that they afforded useful reading to Catholics, and the numerous converts that from all sides are being gathered into the fold of the Church, might also furnish inquirers with a plain and simple statement of Catholic doctrine, principles, and practice, together with an exposure of Protestant errors, and a refutation of some at least among the many absurd and foolish charges brought against the Catholic religion.

Nothing ever written in the English language is so admirably adapted for general distribution, and for spreading a knowledge of the great truths of the Catholic religion, as this Series of Tracts, being written with rare ability and care, and in the best possible spirit of charity, zeal, and good taste, and it is hoped they will win their way into every family, as each Tract discusses in a masterly and condensed manner a single subject only. Their diversity, embracing as they do, Historical, Controversial, and Devotional Subjects, must render them also highly attractive not only to the Catholic but to the general reader. They are published in a neat and attractive style and form, with beautiful type and good paper, and sold so CHEAP in price that they can hardly fail to meet with a large circulation.

The London Rambler says:—"The matter so excellent and price so low that they must do incalculable good. There is something in the tone of these little essays, firm, cheerful, and tangible, most opposite to the morbid, gloomy excitement of the tracts, which have so long circulated among the intelligent of our poor, giving 'the errors,' as we are told by Mr. Mayhew, to such as were entrapped into reading them—most opposite will be their effect, if these should get into a wide circulation."

The Catholic Miscellany says: "What surprises us is, that those handsome publications, printed in such neat style, can be sold for such a trifling sum as four and six cents each. We sincerely advise our Catholic friends who are thrown daily into the society of Protestants, and who are harassed by a multitude of controversial questions, sometimes put forth with a sinister purpose or in a spirit of candid inquiry, to purchase these tracts; and after perusing them, to lend them to their Protestant acquaintances. They will get more than the worth of their money, and will, besides their own advantage in the way of instruction, have the merit probably of being instrumental in guiding others to the wonderful light of God's kingdom, and silencing effectually many of those objections which are daily made to our more prominent doctrines."

The Philadelphia Catholic Herald says: "Dunigan & Brother are publishing a series of most valuable Catholic Tracts, in an exceedingly neat form, on subjects upon which every Catholic should be well informed, so as to be able to meet the objections of our dissenting brethren."

The New-York Truth Teller says: "These Catholic Tracts cannot be too strongly recommended. They have done good work in England, and are written with a vigorous, yet pleasing and cordial pen; and are as far removed from the venomous fanaticism generally found in tracts, as they are allied to good feeling and geniality."

The Philadelphia Catholic Instructor says: "We have not in a long time seen any small works from which larger advantage to Catholics may be derived, than this cheap series of Catholic Tracts, now in course of publication in a neat form by Dunigan & Brother. All Catholics in the habit of conversing with Protestants, and all Protestants anxious to discover truth, should read these."

"THE PRETTY PLATE" is an exquisite story, simple, delightful, and most admirable in its moral. In reading it, as if sitting amid the group of earnest listeners, with an interest we do not feel in many a more pretending history, we mark the feverish longing of the little culprits for the coveted article, the cleverness with which they accomplish their object, the remorse and terror that follow the commission of their crime, with their many expedients for concealing that which their consciences tell them cannot remain hidden, the adroitness with which the stolen property is restored to its owner—the dread and despair with which they enter upon the confession, and the happy results that follow the triumph of grace over human pride, so forcibly depicted in this ingenious narrative. As long as readers are to be found among the children of America, the story of the 'Pretty Plate' will never cease to be a favourite."

TO THE CATHOLICS OF THE UNITED STATES.

MURPHY & CO. respectfully solicit a careful examination of the Catalogue of their own Publications, which comprises a great variety of STANDARD CATHOLIC BOOKS, in the English, Spanish, German, and Latin Languages, published especially, with a view to meet the wants of the Catholic Community, throughout the United States. These Books, being issued in their own Establishment, under their own careful supervision, they feel justified in recommending them for accuracy, neatness, and quality—both as regards Paper, Printing, Illustrations, and Binding—and as to cheapness, they respectfully refer to the prices annexed to each Book in the Catalogue, from which a liberal discount is made to Booksellers, Clergymen, Religious Communities, &c.

STANDARD PRAYER BOOKS—Published with the Approbation of the Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore.—They beg in particular to invite attention to their list of Standard Prayer Books, comprising a great variety of sizes and styles, in the English, German and Spanish Languages, varying in price from 12½ cents to $10 per copy. The utmost care is observed in the Compilation and Revision of these Books. They are adapted to all parts of the United States, and may be relied on, as combining a degree of unsurpassed elegance, accuracy and cheapness.

ST. VINCENT'S MANUAL.—A new, cheap, and Revised Edition of this STANDARD PRAYER BOOK has just been published, varying in price from 50 cents to $10 per copy. The extensive sale, and universal favor with which this Work has been received, are gratifying evidences to the Publishers, that they have accomplished what they originally designed to make, a Standard Prayer Book, adapted to all parts of this country and Canada, which, in point of cheapness, accuracy, elegance of printing, illustrations and binding, might justly be considered the best and most beautiful Catholic Prayer Book in the English Language. The Publishers take great pleasure in inviting attention to the Approbation of the Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore, and the Right Rev. Bishops of the United States who composed the Seventh Provincial Council, held in Baltimore in May, 1849, recommending this Book as being the MOST COMPLETE, COMPREHENSIVE and ACCURATE PRAYER BOOK published. The Rt. Rev. Bishops of Montreal and Toronto, Canada, have kindly extended their approbation to, and recommended the use of this Book to the faithful of their respective Dioceses.

SCHOOL BOOKS.

They desire to invite particular attention to their STANDARD SCHOOL BOOKS, most of them having been compiled, or carefully revised, by M. J. Kerney, Esq., a Catholic gentleman of distinguished ability, and a Practical Teacher of many years experience. The others, with the exception of McSherry's History of Maryland, were originally published by the Metropolitan Press, under the auspices and careful supervision of the Eminent Professors of St. Mary's College, Baltimore. These considerations they trust will be sufficient to invite a careful examination from the principals and conductors of Catholic Institutions throughout the country.

ENGLISH and IRISH EDITIONS of NEW and STANDARD CATHOLIC WORKS.—They are happy in being able to announce to the Catholics of the United States, that they have recently entered into such arrangements with the leading publishers, as will enable them to sell most of the STANDARD CATHOLIC WORKS at an average of 25 to 33½ per cent. below the prices heretofore charged in this country. They intend keeping a large stock constantly on hand, to which additions of New Works will be regularly made, as soon as they appear.

FRENCH WORKS, comprising a choice assortment of Prayer Books, and other Standard Works, kept constantly on hand, to which additions are made regularly by direct importation.

 Their arrangements and facilities for importing French Works, enable them to offer peculiar advantages to such as may desire to purchase, or import to order.

RELIGIOUS PICTURES, PRAYER BEADS, MEDALS, &c.—Their stock in this line is extensive, embracing a great variety of styles and prices—and being imported direct, they are enabled to sell at the very lowest prices.

BREVIARIES, MISSALS, CHURCH OFFICE BOOKS, &c.—They are happy to announce, that they have just received a consignment of the celebrated Mechlin Editions of these Works, beautifully printed in Red and Black, direct from the Publisher, Mr. Hanicq, and entered into such arrangements as will enable them hereafter to keep a constant supply.

They take pleasure in announcing to their friends and the public, that they have nearly completed their arrangements, by which they are now enabled to keep constantly on hand a large and choice assortment of almost every thing required in connection with the Catholic Book Business. They deem it unnecessary to enlarge on the advantages to be derived from this combination, as the convenience and saving of time and expense, in being able to purchase every thing at one place, will be at once apparent.

 ORDERS are respectfully solicited, to which the most careful and prompt attention will be given.

THE NEW POSTAGE LAW.—The Postage on Books, under the New Law, (Sept. 1852,) is 1 cent per ounce, to any part of the United States under 3,000 miles, to be paid in advance; if not paid in advance, 50 per cent. is added to the pre-paid rates.

It is printed on fine paper, from a good clear and bold type, and may justly be considered the most complete as it is unquestionably the cheapest edition published.

The Spawife, or the Queen's Secret : a Tale of the Times of Queen Elizabeth: by Paul Peppergrass, Esq., author of Shandy Maguire —in 2 vols. 12mo., 742 pages, with 6 Fine Illustrations, by Rowse.....	cloth, gilt backs	1 50
The story is of the early part of Elizabeth's reign. The Queen herself is the principal actor; and we know of no writer who has so truly conceived and so faithfully illustrated her character, both as a sovereign and as a woman.
The interest of the story turns on her intrigues with Leicester on the one hand, and with the enemies of the Queen of Scots on the other.
The subordinate actors in the drama, particularly the Spawife herself, Nell Gower, Sir Geoffrey Wentworth, the old English gentleman, the reckless, daring young Irishman, Rodger O'Brien, and the faithful, blundering servant Reddy Conner, are drawn with remarkable force and distinctness of character.

RECOMMENDED FOR GENERAL USE, BY THE

Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore, and the Right Rev. Bishops

Who composed the Seventh Provincial Council, held in Baltimore, in May, 1849, and the National Council in May, 1852, as being the MOST COMPLETE, COMPREHENSIVE, and ACCURATE CATHOLIC PRAYER BOOK Published in the United States.

EVERY CATHOLIC FAMILY ought to have AT LEAST ONE COPY OF THIS BOOK IN THEIR HOUSE, as it embraces every variety of Exercises for FAMILY DEVOTIONS and the SERVICE OF THE CHURCH.

Just Published, the FIFTEENTH ENLARGED EDITION, in a beautiful 18mo. volume of 787 pages, Illustrated with Splendid Steel Engravings, Illuminated Title, &c.

ST. VINCENT'S MANUAL:

A SELECTION OF PRAYERS and DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES, originally prepared for the use of the Sisters of Charity in the United States, with the Approval of the Superiors.

Revised, Enlarged, and Adapted to General Use.

APPROBATION OF THE MOST REV. ARCHBISHOP OF BALTIMORE, AND THE RIGHT REV. BISHOPS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Considering St. Vincent's Manual as one of the most comprehensive and judiciously compiled Prayer Books, I take great pleasure in recommending it to the Faithful.

I cheerfully concur in the foregoing approbation of the M. Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore.

Pittsburg, April 24, 1848.

I have examined St. Vincent's Manual with some attention, and find it not only more comprehensive than any prayer book now in use, but also better adapted to the wants of the Catholic community at large, to whom I take great pleasure in recommending it.

St. Vincent's Manual is an Encyclopedia of Devotional Exercises, more complete, we think, than any Prayer Book, in any language.

I fully concur with the Most Rev. Archbishop, and other prelates above mentioned, in approving and recommending St. Vincent's Manual.

We concur in the foregoing approbations, and recommend the work in our Dioceses.

MICHAEL, Bishop of Mobile.

ANTHONY, Bishop of New Orleans.

MATHIAS, Bishop of Dubuque.

JOHN JOSEPH, Bishop of Natchez.

RICHARD VINCENT, Bishop of Richmond.

PETER PAUL, Bp. of Zela & Admr. of Detroit.

ANDREW, Bishop of Little Rock.

JOHN MARY, Bishop of Galveston.

JOHN, Bishop of Albany.

JOHN MARTIN, Bp. of Milwaukee.

MARTIN JOHN, Bishop of Louisville.

JOHN, Bishop of Buffalo.

I most cheerfully concur in the foregoing recommendations, and earnestly recommend the use of St. Vincent's Manual to the faithful of my Diocese.

Toronto, 6th January, 1851.

We approve St. Vincent's Manual, and recommend it to the faithful of our Diocese, as a book well adapted to nourish their piety. We have added to the table which exhibits the days of fast, of abstinence, and of obligation in the United States, that which is observed in the Diocese of Montreal.

BRIEF EXTRACTS FROM NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

"Without exception this is by far the best Catholic Prayer Book in our language. It was originally prepared for the use of the Sisters of Charity; and in adapting it for general use, such additions as the WAY OF THE CROSS, the prayers of BONA MORS, MEDITATIONS FOR EVERY DAY IN THE MONTH, the SCAPULAR, LIVING ROSARY, MONTH OF MARY, &c., give it that standard value that will make this the most popular of all our excellent prayer books."

"The work is neatly executed; and for intrinsic merit, as a manual and collection of devotions, we would give it the preference over any other that we know in English. Our reasons are, its greater variety of exercises, and especially its large number of LITANIES."

"The excellence of this prayer book consists in the accuracy which characterizes its various parts, and in the numerous prayers and instructions which have been introduced into it. It contains full explanations of all the principal observances of Catholic piety, and of several devotions which have never been published in any other English prayer book, for instance, the MONTH OF MARY, the LIVING ROSARY, the ARCH CONFRATERNITY FOR THE CONVERSION OF SINNERS, RULE OF LIFE FOR A PIOUS CHRISTIAN, &c. The Prayers before and after Communion and Confession are very copious, and the Litanies are numerous. One of the most useful additions to the work is the Burial Service in Latin and English for children and adults, which will enable those who assist at that ceremony, to follow the officiating clergyman. The Psalms and other devotions for the evening service of the church are arranged to suit the different seasons that occur during the year. In short, this Manual may truly be said to be the most comprehensive book of the kind that has ever been issued from the press in this country. It is very handsomely executed, and embellished with several fine Engravings. Let all purchase this book, who wish to be provided with a complete manual of Catholic piety."

"Mr. Murphy, of Baltimore, has just issued a new Catholic Prayer Book, which we pronounce without fear of contradiction to be the best which has yet come within our knowledge. It is beautifully got up—printed with new type, on excellent paper—illustrated with several fine engravings, and illuminated title—presentations plates, &c. and can be had in any kind of binding."

The very liberal patronage extended to them, and the favor with which they have been received, especially by many practical Teachers, and their immediate introduction into several of the principal institutions of learning in the country, is the best evidence of their practical utility. For recommendations and notices of the following Works, see Murphy & Co's General Catalogue, published in the Catholic Almanac for 1852.
